Midgets win

It looked as if Martin Neall's first period goal would be enough for a Midland Legion Midget's victory until Collingwood responded in the third period with two of their own.

Suspense and humour in 'Gator' at Odeon

by Terry Dupuis
"GATOR" (Pen Theatre)
"BAMBI" (Odeon Theatre)

Several years ago Burt Reynolds portrayed a moonshining character named Gator McKlusky in a movie called "White Lightning". This film was such a success that a sequel to it was made recently called "Gator". Burt Reynolds not only stars again in this new movie; he also has directed it. And does a good job in both departments.

"Gator", which begins tomorrow night at the Pen Theatre, is exciting and fast-paced entertainment. On the whole I found it to be superior to "White Lightning". There is a good amount of action, suspense and humour. Reynolds does his usual good-natured self-mocking role, and this is one of Reynolds' strongest points as a screen performer - the fact that he doesn't take himself too seriously and kids his image in most of his movies.

As for the rest of the cast, Lauren Hutton supplies the love interest; Jack Weston provides a fine comic performance as a chubby bumbling Treasury agent; and Jerry Reed is curiously effective as a nasty bad guy.

Playing opposite "Gator" at the Pen Theatre is Richard Harris in "The Return Of A Man Called Horse".

Beginning tonight at the Odeon Theatre in Midland is an excellent double bill that the whole family can enjoy. "Gus" is a Walt Disney comedy about a kicking mule. It stars Don Knotts and Tim Conway. The second feature, "Bambi" is a Disney classic. It is one of the best feature-length cartoons Disney ever made, ranking alongside "Pinocchio" and "Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs".

Next Wednesday both the Pen Theatre and the Odeon Midland will be running the same program: a feature-length documentary from Sun Classics called "In Search of Noah's Ark". A detailed review of it will appear in this column next week.

Bantams tie

Midland Indusmin Minor Bantams recorded their third tie in five starts as they battled Wasaga Beach on Saturday.

Midland dominated the first two periods with good passing and close checking. Gerry Borsa and Paul Hahn gave Midland a 2-0 lead but Wasaga Beach got a goal back with one second left in the second period.

Midland eased off in the third period and some good forechecking allowed Wasaga to tie it up 2-2.

CARPET AND UPHOLSTERY CLEANING

For badly soiled and white carpets we recommend using both methods, shampooing reaches deep into the carpet and foams soil to the surface, the carpet is then steamed (without the use of a steam cleaning chemical) to remove soil and shampoo leaving you the cleanest carpet possible.

Living room Dining room & Hall only $44.00 Steamed Shampooed or both.
