

Women's group discusses being Canadian

By E. Lorraine Orr
"Why am I happy to be a Canadian" was the answer to the Roll Call for members and visitors of the Coldwater Senior Women's Institute held at the Riverside Club on November 9.
The motto of the meeting was "Ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country."

The minutes and financial reports were given by the secretary Mrs. Marg Smith and a report of the flower fund was submitted by Mrs. Lillian McFarland.

President Mrs. Alma Calvert said a memorial prayer and asked those in attendance to observe a minute silence.
Mrs. Cora Lane and Mrs. Jark Walker represented the organization at the Area Convention held at St. Paul's United Church in Orillia in early November. They told the Coldwater members that a business meeting began the first afternoon activities with reports being given by representatives of each Institute.

Those in attendance voted to donate $20.00 to the Federation of Agriculture. Mrs. Herbert Maluske of Chesley, President of the Senior Women's Institutes of Ontario addressed the gathering in the afternoon.

A turkey dinner was enjoyed with a light entertainment and social evening following. Slide pictures were shown by members who had attended the Tri-annual Convention at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Lane advised there were over 200 delegates attending each day.

Graduate
Dr. Robert Gervais, son of Mrs. Paul Vezina, of Sunnyside, Midland, has completed his specialty in Ophthalmology in Edmonton, Alberta.

Bazaar a success

by Lorraine Kindy
St. Mary's Catholic Churches' Christmas Bazaar in Victoria Harbour was a great success on Nov. 25th. A big Thanks go to everyone that pitched in and helped. The Lucky Winners were, on the 50-draw, Robert Savage; Sewing Box donated by Patty's and won by Florence Kaus; Cushion donated by Mary Roxkaff and won by Clara Cadeau; Christmas Cheer and Cheese Board won by Ed Moreau. The following were Penny Sale Winners. Kay Pelletier and Rita Pelletier, Cathy Cadeau, Rosalie Charlebois, Bev Juneau, Dot Quinlan, JoAnne Cadeau, Helen Price, Jamie Cadeau, Andy Larmand, Andrew Pelletier, Donald Dorion and Joel Brousseau.

The Victoria Harbour Firemen treated their wives to a lovely dinner at the Sportsman Inn on Nov. 27th with dancing afterwards at the Legion Hall with Marcel Maurice supplying the music. The Lucky draw was won by R. Maurice of Penetang. Four retiring firemen received appreciations scrolls presented by Reeve Theo Bernard on behalf of the village. The men represented 65 years of service. The gentlemen were Art Larmand, Willard Larmand, Steve Cadeau, Stan Dion.

On Saturday Nov. 27th in the afternoon Euchre was held at the Victoria Harbour Legion with guests coming from Angus, Port McNicoll and Elmvale. A ceramic Christmas Tree donated by Marlene Murray was won by Alma Savage and a curlers set donated by Joyce Bressette was won by Clara Pelletier.

A reception and afternoon tea was held in the honour of Mrs. Hilda Johnson who was a former resident of Victoria Harbour and who now lives in Midland. For the many years that she lived in the Harbour, Hilda was very active in town activities. Being a worker in Meals on Wheels, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion, of Victoria Harbour and the Victoria Harbour and District Ladies and also the Georgian Group of the Senior Citizens and any other activity that needed a canvasser or worker. Mrs. Maida Evans was master of ceremonies and called on Mrs. Marjorie Bressette to say a few words. Mrs. Dorothy Rogers also spoke of her years of hard work in the Senior Citizens.

Meals-on-Wheels has a few changes to announce. Judy Kaus 534-3587 has now taken over from Gwen Hayes as the new coordinator for drivers and cooks. Lorraine Kindy 534-3338 is now the new buyer and organizer for the meals. Mrs. Ena Goobie 534-3003 will remain for visitation. We thank Mrs. Marg Tremblay and Mrs. Gwen Hayes for their work on Meals-on-Wheels in the past. Should anyone know of a person that Meals-on-Wheels would help please contact Mrs. Ena Goobie. A good diet is essential to good health and for a $1.00 a day this can be provided.
