Club still undefeated

Midland curlers advance to January 8 playdowns

Midland survived three days of curling with their undefeated record intact to win their division in the British Consols Playdowns held in

Bracebridge over the weekend. The team of Paul MacDonald, Len Patterson, Kent Carstairs and skip Russell Howard now meet the winner of the second division in the finals to be held in Elmvale on January 8. The playdowns are the first step on the way to the Brier.

Atoms record another win

It was no contest Sunday as Midland Baush and Lomb Minor Atoms walked all over Penetanguishene and came away with a 11-1 victory.

Shawn Davy scored two goals and two assists as did Mike Bennett. Jim Farragher and David Bressette also netted two goals with Bressette earning one assist. Mike Gadsby scored one goal and three assists. Jeff Bales and Guy Jeannotte had one goal and two assists and Jason Brown came away with one assist.

Auxiliary draws winners

The winners of the draws sponsored by the Midland Ladies Auxiliary for the mentally retarded are: Dennis Nesbitt of Midland, winner of the quilt, and Marion Cassel, novelty winner.

Indusmin tie one, win one this weekend

Midland Indusmin three out of a possible four points on the weekend with a 4-4 tie with Stayner and a 6-3 win over Thornbury.

Games underway

The Huronia Winter games got underway last week and Midland athletes won two golds and two silvers. Leslie Beal from Midland and Annalise Rasmussam from Barrie teamed up to win a gold in the ladies doubles badminton event.

Figure skating was Midland's forte last year at the games; but they came up a bit flat this time around.

Wendy Haseneier was the only gold medal winner in skating, winning the Intermediate ladies group A division. Carrie Van Klink was right behind her taking the silver. In the ladies open division Cindy Mandley turned in a fine performance to capture the silver medal.

The games will continue in the New Year from January 8 to 16.

Friday's game against Stayner was one of the fastest and cleanest of the year as Midland's passing and defensive play was spectacular. Goaltender Brian Moore provided the fans with some excellent work between the pipes.

Midland was forced to play with less than a full lineup as two players were away with injuries and two were sick. Midland scored in the first period and held on to the slim margin until the second when Stayner came back with a pair of goals. Midland tied it up again before the period was over.

Stayner came out in the third with two quick goals and forced Midland to play catch-up hockey. Scott Kennedy, Gerry Borsa, Paul Hahn and Danny Hall tallied for Midland with assists going to John Wright, Paul Belanger, Guy Forget and Scott Kennedy.

Midland dominated Saturday's game against Thornbury scoring three goals in the first period. Pat Brodeur and Scott Kennedy scored two goals each with singles going to Gerry Borsa and an unassisted effort by Paul Belanger. Assists went to Belanger and Danny Hall with two, Borsa, John Wright and Guy Forget.

Their next game is on December 27 when they meet Malton in a Minor Bantam tournament in Whitby.

GREETINGS OF THE SEASON

Bright Christmas greetings to all of you from all of us.

Alumni basketball

Midland Secondary School's fourth annual alumni basketball games have been scheduled for January 29.

This year the girls will be getting into the action as former graduates of MSS battle the present senior girls' team. The men will take on MSS's strong senior boys' team.

The only criterion for participation is that former students must have played on the senior girls or boys team while attending MSS.

Parents, relatives and friends are asked to notify former players. To sign up for one of the teams or for more information call Chester Graham at 526-2274 or 526-6104 at night.
