

Former Beausoleil Island warden

Well known local resident George Lynn dies in Penetanguishene

Well-known local resident George Lynn passed away at the Penetanguishene General Hospital on Wednesday, February 2, 1977. Mr. Lynn was in his 86th year. George Lynn was born in Sunnidale Corners but grew up on the shores of Georgian Bay, a factor that may have contributed to his affinity with the Georgian Bay wilderness. He served overseas in the first world war but returned to farm the land and later to work as the first warden of Beausoleil Island National Park. The Indians who lived in the island reservation, were so impressed with George Lynn's work on the island that they made him an honorary chief and invested him with regalia he cherished dearly. His Indian name was Og-a-Ma Ma-shin-awa which means 'chief messenger'. Lynn was also responsible for the cutting and marking of 75 miles of trails on the island, many of which still bear the name he gave them.

George Lynn left the island in 1941, never to return because of the many changes which occurred after the second world war.

Mr. Lynn is survived by his wife, Millicent May Reddish of Highland Point, Penetanguishene, daughter Beverley of Kingston and sons Kenneth of St. Catharines and Moreland of Midland.

George Lynn is lovingly remembered by nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He is also survived by sisters Elizabeth of Port Arthur and Mabel, of Collingwood.

Funeral services were held at the James H. Lynn Funeral Home, Midland, the Rev. Sid Maddock officiating at a memorial mass. Cremation at the Riverside Crematorium. In memorium donations to the Ontario Heart Foundation or the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Gould talks about films

cont'd from p. 9

The films vary in length from two to 25 minutes and they have a wide variety of subject matter.

One of the artist's more recent productions has been, "Play Ball-Au Jeu", a film portrait of the Montreal Expos, interwoven with actual shooting of a game with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

"I'm kind of a baseball nut," Gould admitted. The film has been bought by an American distributor and is being shown throughout the United States and Europe.

Is Gould a nationalist? "I certainly love our country. I feel we have a lot to offer in the way of art and culture. But I think I'm more of an internationalist with nationalist sentiments."

"Artists aren't generally political sophisticates," Gould continued, "and there's an inherent danger in strong national feeling; you find yourself in a box."

Gould was commissioned by French mime, Marcel Marceau, to paint and draw his performance at City Center in New York in 1970.

"There was no way in which I could have presented a 'Canadian'

Clean water for Harbour

Victoria Harbour's long-awaited water filtration plant is on its way to becoming a reality.

The Ministry of Environment recently informed the village that it had awarded a contract to build the filtration plant to V.K. Mason Construction Ltd. of Toronto. The $1,067,001.00 contract sets a February 24, 1978 date for completion of the project. Work on the Lighthouse Crescent filtration plant is expected to start shortly.

slant to my work in a case like that—you just do your work and you do it as well as you can."

"But it upsets me as well to learn that a film like "Mon Oncle Antoine", after so much praise by all the critics, can only last three weeks in New York City. It's perplexing. Jutra is our Ingmar Bergman and he produced a classic film. And I think the film people in Ottawa could have added more assistance."

Gould himself has no plans for a feature film in the future.

"That would really take a lot of time and a lot of money," he said, "and I don't think that I'm ready to devote two to three years of my life to such a major project—not yet, at any rate."

Gould's "Wauaubushene Faces" was recently shown at St. Joseph's Hall in Wauaubushene and was well received by an audience of close to 200. But Midland area residents will get another chance on February 22 at the Midland Public Library, where screening time is tentatively set for 8:00 p.m.
