MSS Seniors win tournament

Banting Memorial High School's Junior basketball team rebounded from a 75-50 defeat at the hands of Midland Secondary School two weeks ago, to squeak past MSS 56-54 last week.

The tie breaker turned out to be two foul shots sunk by the Alliston school with 18 seconds left.

James Moreau was the big gun for MSS, netting 17 points, John Faragher scored 10.

The MSS Midgets were more successful on the court as they dominated their opposition, winning 60-33. Alliston had only one sub on the bench and he fouled out, meaning all their players had to go the distance. The resulting fatigue left holes open in the Alliston defence and MSS capitalized on them with good hustle.

Doug Lynn earned 10 points for the victors.

Midland's senior team won the Stayner Basketball Tournament on the strength of Steve Agnew's outstanding play.

Agnew scored 46 points, over one-third of his team's point total in the three game competition.

MSS downed Owen Sound 42-38 in the first matchup and Meaford 44-35 in the second to earn a spot in the finals.

Collingwood Collegiate was easily defeated by MSS in the final game, 44-25.

Glen Bannan also had a good series, scoring 27 points. The seniors travel to Collingwood today for their sudden-death game in the quarter-final playoffs.

Juveniles lose

The Penetanguishene Juveniles, keeping in shape for their playoff series against Parry Sound this week, defeated Midland 8-3 in an exhibition game played Sunday afternoon.

Penetanguishene jumped into a 2-1 lead in the first period on goals by Paul Lefaive from Mark DeCoursey, and by DeCoursey from John St. Amant, while the Midland goal was scored six minutes from the end of the period, by Chris Wright from Travis Hunter and Tim Merkley.

Hunter tied it up for Midland just 36 seconds into the second, from Merkley, but Penetanguishene scored four in a row in the remainder of the period to wrap up the game.

Aime Gignac scored two in the space of eight minutes, assisted on the first by Grant Quesnelle and St. Amant, and on the second by Quesnelle and Pat Duquette. Harry Cowan and St. Amant scored within 14 seconds of one another near the end of the second period. Cowan was assisted by St. Amant and Ken Parent, while St. Amant's goal was unassisted.

In the anti-climactic third period, Merkley scored for Midland, from Steve Kennedy, and Ken Cowan scored from Larry Cowan and Greg Arbour for Penetanguishene, while St. Amant scored the final goal, his second unassisted goal of the afternoon.

Championships next week

Three periods of no penalty hockey in Coldwater hockey

Game 1: Beer's Fuels vs Carters Apotheks
This was a well played game with the team from Carters playing a good checking game and keeping it up right till the last minute. Beer's started scoring at 13:45 of the first period when Bob John scored from Gerry Elliott and Jim Hucker. Rod Stubel gave Beers a 2-0 on a pass from Charlie Robb and Deny Aiken at 15:54. At 3:14 Rod Stubel scored again on a pass from Brian Kauk to make it 3-0 for Beers.

After a scoreless second period Bob John scored at 12:05 of the third period from Bill Johnston and Eric Hutchinson to give Beers a 4-0 lead. My apologies to the Beers team, the first goal of the game was scored at 17:40 of the first period by Bob John on a pass from Gerry Elliott. All other goals and assists are correct, final score was Beers 5, Carters 0. This was Wayne Ward's first shut-out this year. Beers Fuels also won the consolation trophy, taking the series 2 games straight.

Game 2: Leadbetters vs IDL
IDL opened scoring in this game at 9:50 of the first period. Bob Widdes scored from Earl Cousineau and less than a minute later Ed Henderson came back with a goal for Leadbetters with Glenn Andrews getting the assist. The score remained 1-1 at the end of the first period. Then at 18:17 of the second period Ross Nicholson put IDL ahead on a pass from Bob Widdes. Both teams started checking hard and playing good defensive hockey. Then at 4:56 Ron Wright scored for IDL on a pass from Earl Cousineau and Wes Smith to give IDL a 3-1 lead.

At 3:03 Bob Widdes scored unassisted to make it 4-1. In the third period Phil Nancevill scored for Leadbetters at 18:55 from Terry Cathcart and Gary Commano. At 17:05 George Cronk made it 4-3 on a pass from Brian Sopher.

Gib Ormiston came through with 2 goals for IDL, the first one at 8:15 from Paul Bressette and the second one at 8:02 from Karl Todd and Paul Bressette. Ed Low scored for Leadbetters at 5:30 to make the score 6-4 on a pass from Gary Comanda.

Bob Widdes scored at 4:00 unassisted to make it 7-4 for IDL and Paul Bressette scored the final goal of the game at 2:06 from Gib Ormiston and Karl Todd.

This is the first time in the league that a game has gone 3 periods without a single penalty being called. I guess it goes to show you that if they keep their minds on hockey the game is just as good and just as exciting.

IDL wins this series and goes on to play the winners of the next series for the championship.

Angela Schmidt Ontario cross-country champion

Angela Schmidt took first place in both the women's open and girls' open races in the All-Ontario Cross-Country skiing Championships in Sudbury on the weekend. She is now in Burns Lake British Columbia ready to compete in the first race of the Canadian Junior Championships, an event that runs until Saturday.

A first or second in the Canadian Championships will mean Angelaheads to Alaska for the U.S. National Championships March 11, 12 and 13.

The Honey Harbour resident, who goes to school at Midland Secondary School and is a member of the Midland Ski Club, outdistanced all her competitors in the 5 kilometre races in Sudbury by almost a minute.

Midland advances with win over Collingwood

Midland Bausch and Lomb Minor Atoms advance to the next round of the playoffs thanks to an 8-0 lambasting of Collingwood on Sunday.

Gary Watson recorded the shut-out and Jim Farragher scored four goals in the impressive victory, the second in a row over Collingwood.

Also scoring were Kevin Beausoleil with two, Guy Jeannotte and David Bressette. Shawn Davy collected three assists, Farragher, Jeff Bales and Mike Bennett two each, singles going to Beausoleil, Jeannotte, Billy Russell, Mike Gadsby and Mark Lapointe.

Midland's opposition in the next round has not yet been decided.
