Four prominent musicians to adjudicate at Y's Mens' Festival

The Midland Y Men's Music Festival, one of the longest running annual music festivals in Ontario, enters its 32nd year of competitions today.

Chairman for this year's festival is Dr. Lary Melnyk, secretary-treasurer is the Rev. R. Barlow, with festival committee members being T. Gerow, J. Edwards, M. Perrin, D. MacMillan, and K. Ellis. Four adjudicators from throughout the province will be responsible for judging the hundreds of contestants and awarding prizes and scholarships. Adjudicators will be Helene Milne for piano accordion competitions, Professor Robert Rosevear who will adjudicate instrumental classes, William Vaisey for piano classes and Christine Wilcosz-Thompson who will adjudicate vocal contestants.

Rosevear, a professor of music education in the Faculty of Music at the University of Toronto will be adjudicating instrumental classes this Friday, April 22.

Rosevear, well-known as an adjudicator of bands, orchestras

Scouts' canvas

Ian Hunter is one of 125 Scouts from the Midland Port McNicoll area who is gathering pledges for Trees for Canada, a project with a three-fold purpose. As well as giving Scouts the chance to demonstrate their concern for the future of their country, Trees for Canada gives the boys practical experience in conservation and reforestation. Money raised through the project will be used to help further Scouting in our community, develop campsites and to support an international Scout brotherhood program. John Gignac (above) was one of the many Midland residents who responded to the appeal for pledges. Midland and Port McNicoll Scouts will plant 5000 trees in the area.

Malcolm Spears of Regent School

Midland student second in speaking contest

Peggy Bertram of Huronia Centennial Elementary School in Elmvalle won the Ken Cowan Trophy for public speaking last Monday night in a competition held at Parkview School in Midland. She spoke on "Babysitting".

Eleven competitors from area 3 elementary schools delivered original texts before a panel of judges consisting of Miss Grace McMullen, Reverend James Frost and Shirley Whittington. Each of the speakers was a winner in his own school.

Runners-up in the competition were Malcolm Spears, Regent School, who spoke on "Being Short" and Lindsey Martin, Parkview, whose subject was "Energy Conservation".

Jacqueline Gauthier of St. Joseph's School in Penetanguishene was in fourth place with her talk on the lighter side of "Babysitting."

Other contestants were Randy Greenlaw, Hillsdale - "Musko"; Cathy O'Connor, Waubausene - "Reincarnation"; Cindy Hariston, Bayview - "Calico Cats"; Liz Wagg, Port McNicoll - "Kitchekwana"; Ian Jones, Victoria Harbour - "My Winning Sister"; Nicky Bayfield, Corpus Christie - "Extra Sensory Perception"; Ian Veal, Huron Park - "On Being The Youngest".

In addition, each contestant was requested to read a 200 word selection for which they were given a short preparation time. Contestants were judged on suitability and development of their subject matter, organization, delivery, voice, language and overall impression. At the conclusion of each speech, the judges asked a few questions pertaining to the subject.

Award winning rape film at MHC April 28

Not A Pretty Picture, an award winning film used at the Rape Crisis Centre in Toronto, will be shown in Penetanguishene on April 28 as part of a community education program sponsored by Affirmative Action, an organization of women employees at the Mental Health Centre.

Affirmative Action is a province wide organization, and one of their objectives is to provide community education seminars.

There is no admission charge for the April 28 program which begins at 7:15 in the main Administration Building on the Mental Health Centre grounds. Following the film, a panel composed of Dr. Barry Boyd, Toronto lawyers Barbara Betcherman and Diane Johnston Montagnes, and OPP Chuck Coulson will discuss the legal implications and emotional crises that exist for women who are victims of rape.

The Grey Simcoe Liberal Assc. is having a public meeting at the Owen Sound Library on Tuesday, April 26, 1977 at 8 o'clock. The guest speaker will be the Honourable Jean Jacques Blais, P.C. M.P. Postmaster General.

TD No-charge chequing

...it's not a big deal, but it's a good deal!

QUESTION: Why did TD introduce No-Charge Chequing?
ANSWER: We're trying to get your business.

QUESTION: What does No-Charge Chequing offer?
ANSWER: During PCA statement periods in which a customer's minimum balance is $200 or more, TD cancels the normal 16¢ charge per cheque.

QUESTION: Why is there a minimum balance?
ANSWER: TD invests the $200 to help offset the expense of processing the customer's cheques.

QUESTION: Who is benefiting from No-Charge Chequing?
ANSWER: (1) Our records show that many of our PCA customers always keep a $200 balance. (2) Some TD customers now plan ahead and keep an extra $200 in their account when they intend to write a lot of cheques. (3) Some customers occasionally build up to a $200 minimum 'by chance'. They can all benefit from No-Charge Chequing.

QUESTION: Would it be more profitable to keep the $200 in a Premium Savings Account?
ANSWER: If you write more than 7 cheques during a statement period, we can show you that No-Charge Chequing is a better deal.

QUESTION: Isn't No-Charge Chequing really just 'a little extra' to make TD more competitive?
ANSWER: Yes. We want you to be a TD customer.

QUESTION: So it's not a big deal?
ANSWER: No. But it's a good deal. You should look into it.
