'Patrol Leader of the year'

Penetanguishene patroller honoured

A Penetanguishene skier was honoured at last Friday's Central Zone Ski Patrols Awards banquet.

Beth Dubeau was named Patrol leader of the Year, for excellence in initiative and incentive in all phases of patrol work, including public relations, safety consciousness, general attitude toward the patrol system and extra duties and responsibilities.

Andy Sterzniski and Arlene Fishman of Horseshoe Valley patrol won the Old Patrollers of the Year Award, open to those with more than one year's service to Ski Patrol work.

Kim Pressnail was named the most outstanding patroller from Horseshoe Valley. The Horseshoe Valley Patrol was also honoured as the most outstanding of the year.

Mount St. Louis Ski Patrol was presented with the Dr. Firth Award for the most outstanding first aid act in the Central Zone. In January, a skier collided with an obstacle on the course, and sustained a serious head injury. During the descent, he stopped breathing four times. The Mount St. Louis Patrol provided successful resuscitation each time, and the skier was taken to hospital where he recovered.

Dr. Douglas Firth originated the Ski Patrol 35 years ago. The Toronto osteopath is still an active ski patroller. At the April 22nd banquet, Dr. Firth was honoured with a Order of Canada medal in recognition of his contribution to safety and accident management on the ski hills.

Film Français: Ce soir au Théâtre Pen à 20:00 heures. "Les mensonges que mon père me contait". Le meilleur film canadien 1976, et gagnant de cinq trophées au Festival du film. A voir par toute la famille. Les mensonges que mon père me contait, version française exceptionnelle de Lies My Father Told Me, est un poème humain dans lequel l'auteur, Ted Allan, revit candidement son enfance dans le quartier Juif de Montréal des années '30. C'est tout un monde qui se déroule sous les regards émerveillés et naïfs du Petit David. Un monde où l'ancien et le nouveau, le passé et l'avenir s'expriment et s'opposent dans un paradoxal affrontement entre Marx et la Bible, entre les explications scientifiques du père de David et la foi simple de son vieux grand-père (Yossi Yadin) qui lui fait dire, lorsqu'il pleut, que la terre avait soif et qu'elle a demandé à Dieu de lui envoyer de l'eau.

Le jour où son grand-père mourra, David refusera de croire son père qui lui affirme qu'il est parti pour toujours amant avec lui leur vieil ami: le cheval. Et David attendra leur retour, convaincu, une fois de plus, que son père lui a menti....

Un film que les grands-pères et les enfants savent apprécier et que les parents ne peuvent oublier!

Manpower to sponsor seminar

Local employers and unemployed youth will put their heads together for both groups. The seminar will provide both employers and youth the opportunity to review the survey's findings and discuss solutions in group settings.

The May 14 seminar, sponsored by the Midland-Penetanguishene Canada Manpower Centre, is specifically oriented for unemployed persons in the 16 to 25 age group.

The CMC carried out a survey of employers and students last January, February to determine problems of employment for both groups. The seminar will provide both employers and youth the opportunity to review the survey's findings and discuss solutions in group settings.

In addition to group discussions, a panel representing various interests including youth, will be set up to hear group reports and field questions.
