

Absolute discharge granted in Zellers' shoplifting case

Shoplifting
A 56-year-old Washago man received lenient treatment at the hands of the court in Penetanguishene last Thursday, after he pleaded guilty to a charge of theft under $200.

John Thomas was charged on May 2, in connection with a shoplifting incident at Zellers department store on Highway 27 outside Midland.

Thomas entered the store at about 7:00 on the night in question, and went to the tobacco department. He purchased a pipe and some tobacco, and the goods were placed in a bag, which was stapled shut.

He was then seen to go to the men's wear section of the store where he tried on a sweatshirt. He put the shirt under his arm, and walked around the store. Thomas was then seen to place the shirt into the bag. He returned to the tobacco counter, where he bought some more goods and placed them in the bag as well. He left the store, and was apprehended.

Judge Montgomery told Thomas it was a shame that he had become involved in criminal activity so late in life, and said he felt the humiliation connected with his involvement with the criminal law had probably been deterrent enough to prevent Thomas from being involved with the law again. He then gave Thomas an absolute discharge.

Le dernier microsilicon de Richard et Marie-Claire Séquin, enregistré en partie chez Serge Fiori dans les Cantons de l'Est, est une curiosité. La voix de Marie-Claire est toujours enlevante, mais les chansons font pour la plupart communauté-à-la campagne, retour-à-la-Simplicité, philosophie hippie un peu dépassée aujourd'hui. Les effets sonores - des tas de kazooks, les vagues de la mer - nuisent à la clarté de l'ensemble.

Nouvelles de Lafontaine

par Mme. Bernard Marchand

L'école Ste-Croix de Lafontaine n'a pas manqué de signaler par un programme spécial, le 25^e anniversaire de l'accession au trône de la reine Elizabeth II, le vendredi 20 mai.

Après le chant "O Canada", tous se rendirent dehors devant l'école ou M. Constant Moreau, avec l'aide de deux élèves, Luke Gignac et Peter Laurin, plantèrent deux bouleaux en souvenir de ce jour.

Il y eut rencontre des élèves et professeurs au gymnase. Après le salut au drapeau, M. Roméo Marchand, instituteur, développa brièvement le thème "Le Commonwealth, c'est quoi?" Mlle Cécile Dubeau, directrice, remit à chaque élève une médaille commémorative de l'événement historique qu'est cet anniversaire leur expliquant en même temps la signification de ce geste.
