Hurling it in there

Penetanguishene Garrisons pitcher Alvin Robillard lets one go during a game against Port McNicoll in Saturday's Olympia Sports Fastball Tournament at McGuire Park. The Garrisons lost this semi-final game 1-0, and Port McNicoll went on to lose to the Wyebridge Warriors in the finals.

Toronto Irish win 9-4

Midland Bulls lose after early lead

Adverse weather conditions proved to be the Midland Rucker Bull's downfall on Saturday as they blew a 4-0 lead to go down to a 9-4 defeat at the hands of Toronto's Irish Thirds. High winds and relentless torrents of rain which turned the field into a mud slide made ball handling extremely difficult, especially for the many inexperienced players who says spokesman Gary Baker, are not used to playing under these conditions. "It was their first real rain test...we should have won but with the weather we had some problems." Bulls took the lead

A fast moving sport

If there was any doubt, rugby is a pretty rough game. Here a member of the Toronto Irish Thirds attempts to bring down a member of the Midland Rucker Bulls. The Irish came out on top of a 9-4 score following a wet contest on a rain-soaked field.

Night crawlers flew at annual Hunters and Anglers dinner last week by Bryan Berriault June 15 had to be a babysitters' nightmare as more than 80 children sat down to the annual father and son/daughter supper. No business was carried on since a trip to the Georgian Bay Hunters and Anglers pond was the highlight of the evening. Top fishing awards went to Janice Lott and Orten Crawford. Each caught the biggest speckled trout in his respective fields. Hot dogs and hamburgers were the main course and from the amount that was eaten they must have been good. After the meal it was down to the pond and time for some fishing. All hooks were barbless to keep the chances of anyone being hurt to a minimum. Never at any one time have so many night crawlers spent so much time in the air. Most of the children were giving the worms more air miles than time spent in the water. A few of the fathers gave a helping hand to some of the younger members present. Since it is not permissible for the members to fish the pond it seemed a good excuse for the dads to wet a line without any repercussions. From the pond it was back to the clubhouse for the draw. Excitement mounted as one by one the winners came to the front of the hall to receive their prizes. One might say the draw was fixed since all children won a prize. The 50/50 draw was also held during this meeting. Two year old Kerry Ann Crawford drew the winning ticket belonging to Brian Shaw of Midland. The cash prize totalled $502. A collection was taken up to show the members appreciation to the members wives who helped in the kitchen. A total of $40.11 was collected. Theresa Bourgeois, Mary Crawford, Pat Weisflog and Mae Newburn donated the money back to the Conservation Committee of the Georgian Bay Hunters and Anglers. On this special occasion all pop was donated by Coca Cola in Penetang.
