Freak gust blows over V.W.

The 1969 Buick of Francis Godfrey, 55 Russell St., Midland, sustained $400.00 damage in a single car mishap August 5. Mr. Godfrey was travelling on Lone Pine Road in the Muskoka region when he swerved to miss a deer, crashing into a ditch. Mr. Godfrey was unhurt. No charges have been laid.

OPP report

Collision

Peter Hopper, 17, of Toronto has been charged with failing to share the roadway following a two car mishap on the 23/24 sideroad, Tiny. His 1972 Pontiac collided with a 1976 Datsun driven by Pauline Juneau, 38, of Port Colborne. The Friday afternoon accident occurred on a curve in the roadway, resulting in $200.00 damage to both cars.

Car 'blows' over

On Sunday, August 7, James Saunders' Volkswagen literally 'blew over'. The 17 year old R.R. 3 Elmvalle resident told O.P.P. that his car rolled over as a result of a freak gust of wind on Highway 27, three miles south of Wyebridge. The hefty puff resulted in $300.00 damage being done to the Saunders car.

Two car crash

On Sunday August 7 at 1:55 a.m. a two car crash occurred at the junction of Highway 12 and Simcoe Road 23. A car driven by Luc Savoie, 53, of Georgetown collided with one driven by Elsie May Pratt, 57, of Barrie. Damage to the Savoie car was $500.00, and to the Pratt auto, $350.00. The mishap is still under investigation.

Gas tanks stolen

Gas tank thieves struck the Beausoleil Island area with vengeance on the weekend. Midland O.P.P. responded to no less than nine calls involving gas tanks stolen from boats.

Boat recovered

As a result of an investigation conducted by Simcoe O.P.P. and Midland O.P.P., James Frederick Roxburgh, 47, of no specified address has been charged with possession of stolen property. Mr. Roxburgh was found in possession of a 20 foot Starcraft boat that was stolen from the Simcoe area sometime in May, police said.

Camping gear stolen

Camping equipment and fishing gear valued at $250.00 was reported stolen from the boat of Bruce Acheson, 47, which was moored at South Bay. Although the theft was reported August 7, police surmise that it actually occurred last month.

Cottage break-ins

Two Cawaja Beach cottagers were the victims of separate break and entries, Midland O.P.P. report. Daphne West of Sault Ste. Marie was robbed of $120.00, and Betty Butters, Mississauga, reported the disappearance of $80.00. Both break and entries occurred Saturday, while the cottage residents were at the beach.
