Obituaries

Dusome

The death occurred on August 13, at the Penetanguishene General Hospital, following a brief illness, of Mrs. Eleanore Dusome.

Born at Highland Point, she was in her 83rd year. Daughter of Michel Carriere and Cordelia Bottineau (both deceased), she lived all her life at Highland Point.

She leaves behind her sons Rene Miron, of Port McNicoll, Adelard Miron, of Highland Point, and Fred Miron, of Toronto, and her daughter Rita (Mrs. Theophile Bottineau) of Highland Point.

She is also survived by her brothers Fred Carriere of Penetanguishene, George Carriere of 12 Mile Bay, and by her sisters Mrs. Louise Fournier, of Midland, and Mrs. Ella Mae LePage, Mrs. Mary Cascagnette, and Mrs.

Isabel Bottineau, all of Penetanguishene.

She was pre-deceased by her first husband, Ferdinand Miron, and by her second husband Frank Dusome.

The funeral was held at St. Ann's Church, Penetanguishene, on August 16, with Father Joseph Harrington officiating. The pallbearers were Leo Bottineau, Kenneth Perrault, Albert Miron, Edward Deschamps, Andrew Bottineau and Isidore LePage. Interment St. Ann's Cemetery, Penetanguishene.

St. Amand

The death occurred on August 15, at the Penetanguishene General Hospital, following a brief illness, of Zephirin St. Amand.

Born in Victoria Harbour, he was in his 70th year.

Beloved husband of Lea LeBlanc, he lived most of his life in Penetanguishene, where he was employed for 28 years as an attendant at the Mental Health Centre.

A member of the Penetanguishene Horticultural Society, he leaves behind his brothers Herman, Emery and Gilbert, all of Penetanguishene, and his sister Jenny (Mrs.

Wilfred Ladouceur) also of Penetanguishene.

The funeral was held on August 18 at St. Ann's Church in Penetanguishene, with Father Louis Dignard officiating. The pallbearers were Lawrence Hamelin, Paul Boucher, Gildore Lesperance, Gerard Gervais, Joseph Maurice and Morland Mount. Interment St. Ann's Cemetery, Penetanguishene.
