

SAVINGS FOR STUDENTS

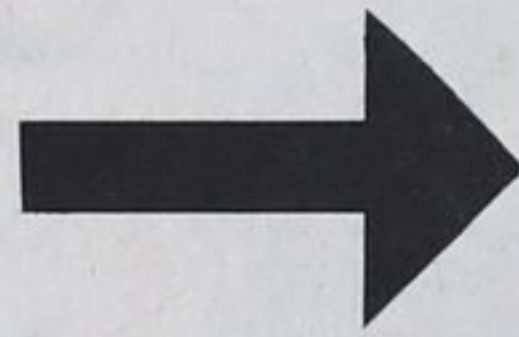

We've got the greatest coverings for Student Bodies

Cowl neck, wool mohair & acrylic tricolour striped sweater - and - Liberte survival pants triple pocket treatment, back and front, flared leg.

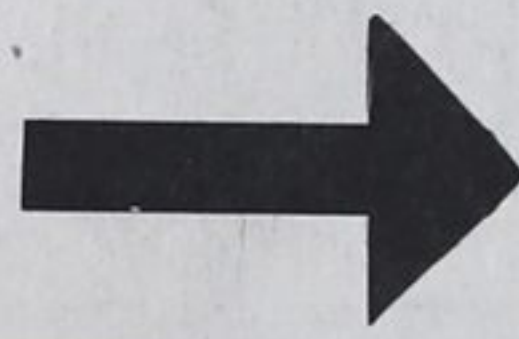

Survival look Air Force pants with backflap pockets, Air Force crest, flap on knee, beige, black, blue or green.
Air Force shirt with insignia, all colours

Versatile 3-pc. Cord man tailored Suit Black corduroy Blazer, pant, and skirt with striped tie blouse.

2-pce. Cord vest and gauchos. Contrast pockets, pockets in knees, worn with or without accessories.

Jeans plus Jeans

20% OFF till Sat., Sept. 10

Mad Murray wants everybody to wear Jeans from curves ahead.

From the very basic to the latest survival look.

Lee, Wrangler, Rebel.

curves ahead!

Corner of King & Yonge Sts., Midland 526-9884

It was a tough journey for the dignitaries...

The visiting dignitaries were the first to arrive on the scene at Awenda Park Saturday. After a small mishap in which the buggy they were riding in broke loose from the horse, they walked up the hill to the site of the end of Heritage Trail '77.

Staff photo

and even tougher for the trail riders.

The members of the Ontario Trail Riders Association proceeded to the cairn marking the end of the trail, for the welcoming ceremony.

Staff photo

But it was all worth it in the end

The 200 mile ride may have been fun, but the riders appeared to be happy it was over. Following the welcoming ceremony, they put on an impromptu display of their excitement at having finished the trip.