

Fall is the season for colour--and Coldwater has it

by E Lorraine Orr
A spot of color was added to Coldwater's main street last Friday not only by the sunny weather but by Victor Turner with his flower wagon. Victor (who operates a greenhouse in the village) displayed plants of bright yellow mums, multicolored coleus and graceful ferns for sale. The wagon is an extension on the front of a bicycle which Vic peddles the street.

A month. Adults are not to be excluded, suitable movies are to be shown on Thursday nights at 8:00 p.m. also on a monthly basis with admission $1.50. Posters will be displayed at suitable locations announcing the current film.

Bake sale and tea
Early Christmas shoppers will be interested in the Senior Citizens' Bazaar, Bake Sale, and Tea on Thursday, October 27 beginning at 11:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. The members are busy preparing many interesting items suitable for gift giving. Persons interested in helping may contact the following convenors: Clara Vivian—Bake table, Grace Campbell—Tea Table, Phyllis Popejoy—Crafts and Nel Abbot—White Elephant.

Congratulations to Mrs. Pat Clark on the occasion of her birthday, October 18. Pat was honored with a family dinner at the Bavarian House at Port McNicoll.

The Fall Thankoffering of St. Andrews Evening Auxiliary was held recently at the Coldwater Presbyterian Church. "Missions of Tomorrow" was the topic of guest speaker Reverend John McNeil pastor of the Gospel Lighthouse. Mr.

McNeil stated "support the missions of the church, not only materially but prayerfully. God has called us to be His missionaries and witnesses. Let's be missionary minded."

The scripture was read by Mrs. Cyril Martin and the congregation was led in prayer by Mrs. Ken McIndoo. The organist was Miss Debbie Cuming. Reverend Charles Carter closed the meeting with the benediction.

Tigger at large
Has anyone seen "Tigger"? This is a Tabby cat belonging to Rebecca Hass of River Street and he has been missing for a week. He is a large and beautiful, striped, neutered male and is wearing a blue velvet collar. Anyone with information about Tigger please call Rebecca at 686-3694.

The Coldwater Horticultural Society will meet on Thursday, October 20 at 8:00 p.m. at the Riverside Club. Guest Speaker will be Mr. Randy Crawford from the Dept. of Natural Resources in Coldwater. His topic will be evergreens, and shrubs how to prune and prepare them for winter.

Meredith Orr and her friend, Jenny Kanis attended the performance of the world famous Mendelssohn Choir at Massey Hall in Toronto last Friday. The girls were the guests of Park Street Collegiate music teacher, Mrs. M. Kumagai, who is a Curler's interested in
