The Cross and The Switchblade is one of the outstanding films of recent years—an explosive motion picture that bares the raw needs at the core of drug addiction, racial hatred and violence. Never has a film been more timely.

Adapted from the book which has captivated over 14 million readers around the world, the film relates the true and incredible story of Rev. David Wilkerson's now legendary ministry. Fresh from the country... defenseless and alone... facing the New York ghettos with its street gangsters and dope addicts, he courageously proclaimed a revolutionary message of love and hope. "Death was not the only door out of the hell that trapped them." On three occasions this crusade nearly cost him his life.

The Cross and The Switchblade has been seen by millions and continues to be an unforgettable experience for all.

Pat Boone stars as David Wilkerson with co-stars Erik Estrada, Jackie Giroux, Dino DeFilippi and Jo-Ann Robinson. A special showing of The Cross and The Switchblade has been scheduled for 8:00 p.m., Friday, November 18 at St. Paul's United Church Hall, King Street, Midland.

Tickets are available at most local churches: Captain's Quarters, Huronia Mall; Bob's Hoogie House; Huronia Office Supply; Good News Book Store; and M.S.S. Library. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

normally come to the bar." Mr. Lennox said that the Commodore "will buckle down on the door" to enforce any new legal drinking age.

Although in favour of the proposed legislation, Mr. Lennox said that "he wouldn't mind even if they raised it to 20".

He also expressed some concern as to the effects of a raised drinking age. "They've gotten used to drinking, and I'm afraid they'll get into trouble out on the streets now that they can't get into bars. We need youth centers, or chaperoned youth dances for kids to go to", he remarked.

Midland Police Chief Ernie Bates said that he "doesn't think" raising the drinking age to 19 years is sufficient—it should be raised to 20".

He explained that since the drinking age was lowered in 1975, he suspects that alcohol related incidents in Midland have been on the rise.

"I've got to say that we've probably had more incidents of wilful damage to public and private property. Although I don't have any facts or figures, I suspect that this increase is related to the lower drinking age", he speculated.
