

Accidents limited even with snow

Despite hazardous driving conditions caused by this weekend's heavy snowfall, Midland OPP report that surprisingly few accidents occurred during the period from Friday to Sunday night.

However, the two types of accidents which occur most frequently and needlessly in the winter began their annual reappearance on the weekend, with a crash between a snowplow and car Saturday morning, and an auto-snowmobile mishap Saturday night.

In the first of these accidents, Russell Joseph Dorion of Victoria Harbour has been charged with impaired driving and driving with an excessive alcohol blood ratio, following a rear end collision with a snowplow on Highway 12, .4 kilometres east of Simcoe Road 37.

OPP sources say that Dorion crashed into a snowplow being driven by Donald Peden. The snowplow received $300 in damage, while the Dorion vehicle sustained $700 worth of damage.

Dorion was slightly injured in the accident.

Ski-doo auto mishap

A Honey Harbour man has been charged with driving with out a headlight following an accident November 26 between a car and a snowmobile.

Police say that a car driven by Michael Lizotte, Honey Harbour, collided with a snowmobile belonging to Joseph Hewitt, also of Honey Harbour. The accident occurred, say police, at 5:45 p.m. on the Lily Pond Road, near Honey Harbour.

Besides being charged with driving without a headlight, Hewitt, the snowmobile driver, sustained minimal injuries in the crash.

Lizotte's car received damage totalling $300, while the Hewitt snowmobile sustained $75 damage.

$2000 Damage

A single car crash which occurred November 26 at 6:30 p.m. on Highway 69, just south of the Macdonald River, resulted in $2000 damage to a car driven by Eino Iksaneneksanem of Weston, Ontario.

Police say that Oksaneneksanem's car slid out of control while travelling northbound on Highway 69, and struck a rock at the side of the road.

No charges were laid.

A two car crash occurred on Highway 12 Friday night that resulted in a total of $700 damage to the autos of two Waubaushehene men.

Investigating Officer Doug Gadsby reported that a car driven by Dale Duffy lost control while approaching a vehicle driven by John Segalin and smashed into the latter's auto.

The Duffy car was damaged to the tune of $500, while the Segalin auto received $200 damage.

Police blame the accident on slippery road conditions, and consequently no charges have been laid.

Merge mishap

Bad road conditions also resulted in a two car crash Friday afternoon on Highway 27, just south of the Yonge Street intersection.

OPP information officer Chuck Coulson said that cars driven by John Kirkwood of Victoria Harbour and Albert Beatty of Midland were travelling in the same southerly direction when, in attempting to merge into a two lane flow of traffic from a four lane flow, the cars lost control and collided.

No injuries were reported in the crash, although the Kirkwood auto received $600 damage, and the Beatty car, $200.

Daniel Trew, formerly of Simcoe Street in Port McNicoll has been charged with arson in connection with a fire that occurred November 17, at the home of Roman Toutaint, Port McNicoll.

The arrest was made following an investigation into the fire by Ray Simmons, of the Ontario Fire Marshall's office.

OPP say that approximately $7500 damage to the Toutaint house was caused by the fire, and $4000 damage was done to its furnishings.

Break enter, theft

At 1:20 p.m. on November 25, George Cormack of Albion Road in Waubaushehene reported that someone had broken into his cottage and stolen an antique radio.

In breaking into the cottage, the thieves caused $300 damage to the outside door.

The radio they stole is of a brown woodgrain construction, and has a single drawer.

Any information on the radio can be directed to Constable Pete Scandian at Midland OPP.

Stolen outboard

Thieves looking to next summer stole a 9.5 horsepower outboard motor from the cottage of Jack Beer, Concession 2, Tiny Township.

Police say that Beer reported the theft on Friday, November 25, at 5:11 p.m.

The motor, a 1976 Mercury model, was stolen from the front lawn of the Beer cottage.

Constable Pete Scandian is investigating.
