

One way to keep warm

Brent Gordon had one of the warmest jobs during the Santa Claus parade in Midland Saturday, and he kept busy at it the whole time while members of the Y's Men shivered around him.

Wyebridge Notebook

Supper well attended

By Mrs. Joy Maynard
The teachers and parents would like to thank Mr. s. Marie Ratcliffe for kindly donating her time every Monday morning listening to the children read at Wyebridge School.

Congratulations goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Carruthers for their 37th wedding anniversary December 18.

The senior Anglican Church Women of the Church of the Good Shepherd" entertained the Jr. A.C.W. group at dinner on Tuesday evening. Special guests were Rev. and Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. Kirk's mother, Mrs. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Wm Jarvis and Mrs. Stephens. Dinner was followed by a social evening and a demonstration of Christmas ornaments by Mrs. Darlene Preston. Darlene made a beautiful center piece which was won by Caroline Guspie.

A big thanks goes out to all the people who helped put up the hockey rink boards on Saturday morning.

Around 200 people attended the Anglican Church parishes Christmas concert and pot luck supper. This included the parishes in Elmvale and Wyevale as well as Wyebridge. Everyone had a really great time.

Darrell Currie from Aurora and Maet Aum from Guelph visited Mr. and Mrs. Eric Currie over the weekend.

Charlie Hounsom Jr. led the Santa Claus Parade in Midland Saturday in his loud speaker car playing records of Christmas carols.
