MSS senior girls defeat St. Theresa's rookies

Midland Secondary School Senior girls volleyball team took advantage of a rookie squad from St. Theresa's High School Tuesday, in exhibition play at MSS.

Midland Secondary won all three games in the best of three match 15-6, 15-10, 15-11.

before winning the final game 15-10. MSS won by scores of 16-6, 15-9, 13-15 and 15-10.

Junior coach for MSS Mike Miller, said his team had hoped to do better but, he was pleased with the results for the first game of the season. "They've improved a lot," he said. "Basically they are a new team, we only have three players back from last year. But, they're all enthusiastic and they never miss a practice."

Only Midland Secondary's Midget team failed to win any of their games in a best of three match, as they lost by scores of 7-15, 10-15, 4-15.

Scott said the team was understandably lacking in experience and had trouble controlling the ball.

"They're just beginning—most of them have never played volleyball before, so they need a lot of work on the basic skills."

Midland will meet St. Theresa's in a return exhibition match Monday at St. Theresa's gym.

Overhand smash

Karen Scott leaps for the ball and pounds it onto the opposing court during a Midget girls volleyball tournament at MSS. The Midgets failed to win any of the three games they played but if practice makes perfect they should start coming on stronger later in the season.

Midgets come up short, lose 4-2

Midland Midgets could not find the net in Monday's Georgian Bay Minor Hockey game at the Wasaga Beach Arena and lost a 4-2 decision to Owen Sound.

Midland failed to score on numerous chances — although they held a territorial advantage during much of the game. "We were hitting them all over the place," said Midland's Steve Friesen,

"but we just couldn't hit the net."

The loss leaves Midland with a 5-0-5 won-lost record in the Midget division.

Rollie Monague was the first Midland player to score after John Ironside set up the play and John Swales netted the second goal after Pierre Belanger and Don Foxall fed him the puck.

Doug Fox took the loss in goal for Midland.

Monday's game marked the first time the full Midget team has played together this year, due to injuries. Dwayne Storey had the best chances for Midland during the game, after missing the first part of the season with a leg injury.

Midgets have been plagued with problems this season and the chances of repeating last year's win at the Silver Stick Midget Tournament appear slim.

"We should still have a good chance," Friesen said. "Once we get some more practice things should get better."

MSS volleyball clinic to be this weekend

Volleyball players from the Midland area will have the opportunity to sharpen their skills this weekend at a volleyball clinic being held at Midland Secondary School, Friday through Sunday.

Dion Rugosi, coach and instructor at Toronto's Ryerson Polytechnical Institute, will lead discussions and practice sessions on the various volleyball skills during the three-day clinic which begins Friday evening at 7:00 p.m.

the Toronto Senior AA Men's team and a former Junior National team member.

The clinic will include discussion of conditioning, strategy for both players and coaches, and court skills such as dives, rolls, setting and spiking.

There is a $10 charge for the clinic — which is open to elementary school students in the Midland-Penetanguishene area. Midland Secondary School students will also take part in the activities.
