Energy forum at college

Four experts from the public and private sectors will discuss energy conservation at a student sponsored forum at Georgian College in Barrie Tuesday evening.

On hand to give their views on alternate sources e.g. energy and the depletion of present fuels will be: Reg Davis an engineer with SN-C/GECO Inc., Toronto; Mike Lewis, information director for the Canadian Nuclear Association; Gordon Hamilton of Canadian Ener-Save Insulation Company and William Porter of Ontario Hydro.

The evening will be split into two parts with formal presentations starting at 7 p.m. and an intermission at 8:30 with light refreshments.

Those attending will be asked to stay for informal discussions.

Moderator for the evening will be Dr. Charles Ivey, a member of the Mechanical and Industrial Faculty at Georgian College.

Co-ordinated by students Diane Coers and Kirt Pearce the meeting is open to the public with no admission fee.
