OPP look into break-in

The Midland detachment of the OPP is presently investigating a major break and enter at a residence on Concession 18 of Tiny township. According to police, Leon Laurin reported on February 3 that his residence had been broken into, and that a stereo set, Traynor guitar amplifier, and a guitar had been stolen. The total value of the equipment is estimated at $1090. Constable Jim Wilson is conducting the investigation.

Stolen CB

An area juvenile has been charged with the theft of a Citizen's Band radio from a vehicle parked at a Tiny Concession 10 residence. Police say that the theft was reported by John Tessier at 2 p.m. on Saturday February 4. The CB is valued at $220.

Fail to yield

Midland OPP have charged James Frederick Matthews of Colborne Ontario with failing to stop at a stop sign, following an accident which occurred Saturday afternoon, at the junction of Highway 27 and Highway 93, in Waverley. According to police reports, the Matthews vehicle collided with a car driven by Harold Thomas Felts of Owen Sound. A passenger in the Felts car was slightly injured in the crash. Both cars received $500 damage.

Accident

A Mississauga man and his wife were slightly injured in a two car automobile accident which occurred very early Sunday morning at the intersection of Highway 12 and Highway 69. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Crandall were hurt when their automobile collided with a car driven by Isabel Mossman of Waubaushe. As a result of the accident, Mrs. Mossman has been charged with making an improper turn. The Crandall car sustained $1000 damage, while the Mossman auto received $900 damage.

Investigation

Constable Rick Perreault is investigating an accident which occurred Saturday afternoon at the intersection of Tiny Concession 11 and the Beach Road. Cars driven by Bradley Maurice of Wyevalle and Laura Brown of Maple Ontario sustained $500 damage a piece in the collision. The mishap is still under investigation.
