Hawks lose close decision to Orillia 4-3

Coldwater Atom Hawks lost a close 4-3 decision to CYO Orillia Saturday, in Coldwater and District Minor Hockey play.

Richard Meyer scored twice for Coldwater and Steve Bissette added a single goal but, it was not enough to beat CYO.

Brent Smith netted two for CYO with singles going to Kevin Pettit and Darcy Low.

In house league playoff action, Bruins scrapped by Canadiens with a 1-0 victory on a goal by Darryl Nicholson, Saturday at the Coldwater Arena.

Novice
Patrick Bowers' three goals boosted Seals to a 4-1 win over Rangers in Novice division play, Saturday.

Mike Oliver scored Seals fourth goal, while the lone marksman for Rangers was Shawn Andrews.

Sabres romped to a 5-1 win over Flyers thanks to David Desroches and Devon Hanes who scored twice each and Bobby Cadeau added a single.

Jeff Blunt scored the only goal for Flyers.

A four goal performance by Steve Schandlen was more than enough to beat Canadians, as the Colts ran away with the game 8-0.

Other goal scorers for Colts were Colin Bidmead, Grant Galloway and Darren Galloway who scored two.

Midgets
Flames edged Georgian Bay 5-4 in Midget play Thursday. Rodney Gill spotted Georgian Bay to a two goal lead in the first period and early in the second, but Flames' Danny Gilbank tied the score at 3-3 with three goals of his own.

Randy Courtney and Glen Nesbit added a goal each while Kevin Holden was the only member of Georgian Bay who could answer.

Bantams
John Guyon and Kelly Brown fired in two goals each for Sharks, as they walloped Whalers 4-0 in Bantam division play, Thursday.

Guyon scored in the first and second periods and Brown scored in the second and third.

Peewees
In Peewee action

Thursday, Canadians downed Bruins 4-1 on goals by Jeff Stewart, Darren Nicholson, Steve Deladova and Jim Stewart.

Jack Yerex sounded the only note for Bruins with his goal in the first minute of the second period.

In Peewee playoff competition, Darryl Nicholson's lone goal gave Bruins a 1-0 win over Canadians Saturday.

Fox kicks out 19 shots, Midland leads playoff series

Aided by a strong defence, Midland Midgets' Doug Fox turned away all but one of 19 shots on goal Sunday, to stake his team to a one game lead over Collingwood in the Georgian Bay Minor Hockey Association semifinals.

Midland won the first meeting of the two teams in the best-of-five series 8-1 as Dwayne Storey scored twice and assisted once for the best performance of the game.

The win meant sweet revenge for Midland after they lost to Collingwood in the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoffs one week ago.

"It was nice to beat them," said Midland goaltender Steve Freisen, "but they didn't have (Noel) McEachern with them, their best player."

McEachern scored all four goals that beat Midland in the OMHA playoff and leads everyone on the team in scoring.

"He's their whole team, offensively, and defensively. Stop him and you stop them. Without him, they are nothing."

Freisen said his team's plan to shadow McEachern in the last series worked most of the time, however, the speedy forward got through to score often enough to put Midland out of the playoffs.

"We'll have to stick to him like flypaper," Freisen said.

Pat Beauchamp opened the scoring for Midland in Sunday's game as he and Pierre Belanger combined to beat the Collingwood goaltender in the first period.

Dale Denis scored from Brad Quinn giving Midland a 2-0 lead at the end of the period.

Kim Lavigne continued Midland's attack with a goal from Dwayne Storey and John Ironside followed by Dave Hamelin and Story who scored once each to run the total up to 5-0 before Collingwood ruined Foxall's shutout with a goal late in the period. John Swales earned the only assist on the two goals, setting up Hamelin. Story scored unassisted.

John Quilty capped a solo early in the third period with a goal to make it 6-1 and Pierre Belanger scored from Don Foxall shortly after. Story popped his second of the night past the Collingwood netminder to make the final score 8-1.

Midland goaltender Doug Fox faced 19 shots in the Midland goal while his rival had to contend with 35 drives.

and third periods for the win.

Seeman picked up his first of two points for the night with an assist on Bressette's goal in the second period. Jeff Bales earned the second assist on the play. Jim Faragher and Bill Scott assisted on Seeman's goal in the third period.

Midland will now await the winner of the Aurora versus Huntsville series before they begin the next round.

Minor Bantams defeated by Coburg in OMHA playoff

Midland Indusmin Minor Bantams finally bowed out of the Ontario Minor Hockey Association playoffs on the weekend losing the third and final game of the series to Cobourg 5-0.

The loss leaves Midland with three regular season games left to play before entering the Georgian Bay playoffs sometime within the next few weeks.

"We had our chances to score," said Midland coach Barry Bressette. "We hit two goal posts, had two breakaways and even hit the goalie in the back when he was out of his net."

Unlike the first two games of the series Midland's undoing was not the work of John Hutchings. Cobourg's prolific scorer who scored 10 goals in the first two games. Hutchings scored only one of his team's goals and relied on his linemates to take up the slack.

Indusmin put themselves back in the winning habit with a 4-1 win over Thornbury in regular league play in Thornbury.

Rick Reeve opened the scoring from Tim Trewin and John Walter and Steve Bressette scored the winner from John Johnson and Walter before the end of the second period. Johnson and Walter each scored goals of their own in the third period including a short-handed goal by Walter unassisted. Gary Beausoleil assisted on Johnson's goal.

Thornbury scored their only goal of the game in the second period to tie the score briefly at 1-1.
