Police say his car was eastbound on Highway 69 behind a car driven by Stanley Prouse of Lively, Ontario when the accident occurred. Apparently the Prouse vehicle braked suddenly as it was approaching a line of traffic and the Hepburn car struck it from behind.

Damage to both vehicles totalled $700. Two passengers in the Prouse car sustained minimal injuries.

As a result of the accident, Bank was charged with impaired driving and excess alcohol.

A Victoria Harbour resident faces a slate of charges in connection with an accident that took place last Wednesday in Port McNicoll.

Charged with failing to remain at the scene of an accident, driving while disqualified, impaired driving, and excess alcohol is Wayne Wilson.

Police say his car was northbound on Second Avenue, turning onto Wardell Street, when it struck a parked car belonging to Ralph Marks of Port McNicoll.

Police allege that Wilson then left the scene of the accident. His car sustained $350. The Marks vehicle received $450 damage.

There were no injuries.

Careless Driving
Police say that a total of $2,000 damage resulted from a two-car collision which took place early Sunday morning on Muskoka Road 5, just west of the Macey's Bay Road cutoff.

Cars driven by Wilbert Legault of Honey Harbour and Richard McMann of Toronto collided when the McMann vehicle rounded a corner in the roadway, lost control, and skidded roadside into the oncoming Legault car.

McMann was charged by police with dangerous driving. McMann was slightly injured in the crash. A passenger in the Legault car also received minimal injuries.

Following too closely
One of the drivers of three cars involved in a collision Sunday evening at Fesserton has been charged by Midland OPP with following too closely.

Charged is Ronald Nelson, Willowdale. Police say that two cars, belonging to Eliezer Magdamo of Thornhill and William Prout of Mississauga were stopped in a line of traffic when the Prout vehicle was struck from behind, causing it to collide with the Magdamo vehicle in front of it.

The Magdamo vehicle sustained $50 damage, the Prout car $800 damage, and the Nelson auto $700 damage.

Magdamo and Prout both sustained minimal injuries.

Failing to Present Breath Sample
A Halifax Nova Scotia man got an unexpected introduction to Ontario's liquor laws early Friday morning, after being involved in a two car accident on Highway 69, just south of Muskoka Road 5.

Besides being charged with making an improper turn, Colin Moore was also slapped with a failing to provide a breath sample charge.

According to police, the Moore car struck a car driven by Armando Tempesta, Rexdale after entering the intersection of Old Highway 103 and Highway 69.

The Tempesta auto sustained $800 damage in the accident, and the Moore car received $500 damage.

There were no injuries.

Charged with making an unsafe left turn is Bernd Schneider.

According to police, a car driven by Ovelen Lemesurier, Penetanguishene was northbound on Highway 27, when it collided with the Schneider car, which was attempting to make a left turn off the highway onto Hugel Avenue. Both cars received $1,500 damage in the accident. Lemesurier, Schneider, and a passenger in the Schneider vehicle received what police call minimal injuries.
