After 38 years in the education business Don Ferguson Superintendent of Schools for Area Four in Simcoe county is retiring. Yesterday morning Brian Pilon of Collingwood Collegiate's Art Department presented Ferguson with a bust of himself as a parting gift from the CCI staff. Pilon, who created the ceramic likeness of the superintendent, said he worked from photographs he spent about 20 hours perfecting the sculpture. Ferguson says he is very much looking forward to the free time he has ahead of him. John Pennock, a former principal of Stayner Collegiate will be the new Area Four superintendent.

New staff

Collingwood Collegiate will add two new teachers to its staff next fall and both were on hand for the June Conference held Thursday at the school. Mark Redmond (left) will join the Science department and comes to CCI from Beamsville. Redmond, who was educated at the University of Toronto is married and he and his wife, Pat have a nine month old son, Scott. He says he plans to help coach the school's football team next year. Brian Loree (right) will teach History and Geography and hopes to get involved with some of the school's teams after hours. Loree is transferring to CCI from Barrie North Collegiate. He earned his B.A. at Brock University and took an M.A. at McMaster. Loree and his wife, Diane, are the proud parents of a 1 1/2 year old son, Chris.

Special mortgages coming

A Graduated Payment Mortgage plan (GPM) is being introduced by the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation (CMHC) to gradually replace the Assisted Home Ownership Program (AHOP).

The main difference between the GPM plan and AHOP is that assistance from the federal government will be extended to resale homes. Basically the same benefits are provided under the GPM plan for both new and existing housing as are now available under the present AHOP loans.

The AHOP loans reduce mortgage interest rates from the current 10 1/2 per cent to eight per cent on a home selling at or below the set AHOP price limit. In Collingwood, the maximum house price to qualify for GPM is $39,000.

The loan under the GPM plan will be in the form of a second mortgage. The program will go into effect once lending institutions have worked out all the details, a process which could take at least two months, according to CMHC officials.

There are now between 25-30 new AHOP homes on the market in Collingwood. These homes are available under either the new or old AHOP programs. The new AHOP plan came into effect May 1, but these homes were started before that date so homebuyers can take advantage of whichever program they choose.

Under the old program, interest-free loans and, in some cases, grants are available to the home buyer. Both federal and provincial grants are available for some with a dependent. The maximum grant available is $125 a month and is determined by a family's gross income. The new program does not provide any grants and interest is charged on the loan. The May 1 changes allow single persons to buy AHOP homes for the first time.

Under all the programs, a down payment of five per cent is required.

Tieless summer for town

Lock up those neckties and throw away the key.

July and August have been declared tieless months by Mayor Harry Bell and council, as has been the custom in Collingwood for the past three years.

Leaving the ties in the closet provides an opportunity for business men to attend work in sports attire in keeping with the holiday atmosphere which prevails in the town during the summer months.

Collingwood men will be able to face the hot, sticky summer weather in comfort and not be forced to suffer from being buttoned right up to the neck.

So take a cue from the town fathers. Go informal and enjoy the summer.

Progress founders

Chal Gorsline, one of the founders of the Collingwood Progress Club in 1937, at a recent meeting of the club, was presented with a certificate commemorating this event. Mr. Gorsline now lives in Toronto and Florida but is still an Honorary member of the Collingwood club. He was President of the club in 1940-41. Shown making the presentation to Mr. Gorsline, is Bert Brydon who was brought into the club in the early days by Mr. Gorsline. Mr. Brydon, now retired, is still an active member of the club.

RATEPAYERS ASSOCIATION OF WASAGA BEACH ANNOUNCES

IMPORTANT RALLY

SUNDAY JULY 2, 1978 - 2 P.M. (SHARP)

OAKVIEW COMMUNITY HALL WASAGA BEACH

ARE WE GOING TO BE ABLE TO AFFORD LIVING AT WASAGA BEACH???

Excessive Spending

During the present Council's term of office of 18 months, over taxpayers' money has been committed for the next 20 years than has been spent in capital expenditures over the past 50 years in our municipality. This shocking increase is as a result of the Arena Complex, Firehall, Works Building and Water and Sewers (the latter without a promised referendum), all accountable to the present Council. Further, if they are returned to office this Fall we understand a new Town Hall and possibly a Post Office are being considered.

Election Year Nov. 13, '78

As a result of the above disturbing information, E.D. Langevin, President of the Association, a former Reeve of Wasaga Beach 1966 to 1971, who retired undefeated, has announced his candidacy for Mayor, along with his running-mate Len Cater for Reeve. A team of candidates will be shortly announced who will be dedicated to controlling the day-to-day expenditures and to restrain further capital outlay.

Join Our Crusade

We need your participation — please become a member of Ratepayers Association. Just forward a cheque to the Association, Box 240, Wasaga Beach for sum of $5.00 per family per year.

Be Sure to Attend

In any case be sure to attend the Rally on July 2, 1978 at Oakview Community Centre — 2 P.M. sharp. P.A. System will be hooked outside to handle overflow. This is your chance to show by your presence your objection to skyrocketing tax increases that must be checked. Taxpayers in California recently revolted at excessive tax increases and won an astounding reduction.

Yours respectfully,
—E. D. Langevin, President
Wasaga Beach Ratepayers Assn.

Len Cater — Vice-President
G. Schwiager — 1st Vice-President
I. Giller — Secretary-Treasurer

Chas. Mitchell — Director
Bob Cameron — Director

Celebrate with a family favorite.

Plan a special Canada Day outing this weekend. And be sure to include Kentucky Fried Chicken in the festivities. It's dinner the easy way made by the Colonel's boys and girls. Finger lickin' good, it's a family favorite anytime, especially when it's served with one of the Colonel's tasty salads and golden brown French fries.
