

Filled your Centennial Scrapbook yet?

Here are some of the many pictures submitted by our readers we were unable to include in our Centennial Edition.

Save these for your Centennial Scrapbook or see if you can indentify the people in the pictures.

Old Catholic Church.

Father Barcelo.

Father Gales.

Its been many a year since a tall-masted sailing vessel like this plied the waters of Georgian Bay and visited the port of Midland. It was an early time when Canada was still discovering much about itself and the first men who came to the woods around Midland were making their mark and their fortune. In the background to the left is the mansion of James Playfair, at one time the most powerful man in the town of Midland

Photo courtesy Vic Mlodecki

