Savage chosen for arena committee

At a regular meeting Monday night, Victoria Harbour council voted to place councillor Ted Savage on the Coldwater Arena Steering Committee, a group in the process of drafting an agreement whereby a consortium of participating municipalities would eventually govern and assist in the capital operations of the financially plagued Coldwater Arena.

Mr. Savage is the chairman of the Harbour's recreation committee.

At a council meeting earlier this year, Harbour councillors were approached by Julian Tofts, secretary of the newly formed steering committee, asking the village to participate in the plan. Council did not take any action to appoint a representative until Monday night's regular meeting, where it received a letter from Mr. Tofts pointing out that the Harbour was only municipality involved in the scheme which had not yet appointed a committee member.

Juveniles arrested for break ins

Midland police have charged two juveniles with break and enter in connection with a series of break ins and thefts dating back to June 10.

Charges were laid Monday and pertain to two separate break ins which occurred at Bayview School July 6, and 7, the theft of two ten speed bicycles June 10, and a break in at Browndale Homes which occurred on Monday.

The investigation leading to the arrests was conducted by Constable Dorion.

The two juveniles were scheduled to appear in juvenile court Tuesday.

Committee will perform college duties

A nine-member Management Committee made up of Georgian College officials will temporarily perform the duties of the president of the college.

Robert P. Crawford, president of Georgian College of Applied Arts and Technology died last week as a result of a gun shot wound to the head. Foul play is not suspected.

The announcement that a new president will not be appointed immediately came on Tuesday morning by Georgian College Chairman of the Board William Caldwell. Mr. Caldwell will act as chairman on the College Management Committee. He has been a board member since 1973 and a chairman of the board since 1977.

K. Allan Cuzen will be appointed as vice-chairman of the board. He will take over in Mr. Caldwell's absence and act as secretary-treasurer of the board. He will be responsible for the day to day operation of the college. Mr. Cuzen is Georgian College's controller.

The president's position will be held. An information officer at the college suspects this will take until October. He said the board feels they have an obligation to search to find the best possible person for the position of president. Over 100 people are expected to apply for it.
