Home Makers Seeking a New Career

Chances are that you are a former secretary, teacher, nurse or receptionist and that you've been away from the work-a-day world for some time. With job scarcity, you may have found, to your dismay, that you now need greater skills or better education to re-enter business in dignity. Our company offers an attractive alternative. We are a leading realtor with 20 branches. A successful applicant will have the opportunity to join others with similar backgrounds, and who are now enjoying greater successes.

- We offer:
- Intensive sales training.
  - Management, encouragement and support.
  - Professional and highly ethical working environment.
  - A liberal advertising system, bonus and commission.
  - An opportunity to develop expertise, recognition and a sense of personal worth.

We invite you to call Mr. Abbott at 322-3131 for a no obligation interview today.

Midgets lose despite outburst

MIDLAND — It doesn't help much to outscore the opposition in only one of three periods, as the Midland Midget lacrosse team found out last Thursday at Midland arena.

The host club scored three times to Gravenhurst's two in the third period, but Gravenhurst spoiled the fact by scoring three unanswered goals in each of the other periods. Midland did come out on top in one category, however, compiling 41 minutes in penalties to Gravenhurst's 17.

Scoring for Midland were Rob Leduc, Glen Tuckerman and Gord Graham. Graham also picked up an assist.

twelve years living in this area at Farlane Lake.

Mrs. Holland was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch number 68 in Penetanguishene.

Reverend J. Desroches conducted a service on July 18, at the Beausoleil Funeral Home in Penetanguishene.

Cremation at the Riverside Crematorium in Toronto.

Pre-deceased by her
