

THAT issue

Dear Sir:

It should come as no surprise to anyone that a French language high school is going to be built here. In spite of the wishes of the majority and the fact that numbers do not warrant it. Quebec has been running this country for as long as I can remember and will probably continue to do so. One has only to look at the representation in the House of Commons.

It seems strange to me that the French culture has survived in this area for some 200 years without benefit of a French only high school. Preservation of culture should be left up to the individuals who so desire it.

This is how the Polish, Greeks, Germans, Italians, Ukrainians, etc. etc. manage it and do very well. Governments should stay out of culture. They only antagonize people and further divide Canada and Canadians with forceful methods.

I recently read an article in The Toronto Star stating that several American companies had products they were unable to market in Canada because they are not labelled in French and there is not room on their packages for more printing. It is against the law to market anything here that is not bilingually labelled, however, I recently purchased an envelope of Bromo-Seltzer printed completely in French, not an English word on it.

As for the Quebec referendum, I think if the people there don't want to remain a part of Canada let them separate and the sooner the better, then the rest of us can get on with the business of being Canadians.

Sincerely,
B. Henderson

Dear Sir:

During the month of controversy and positive studies for a French-language secondary school in the Penetanguishene area, I have refused to take sides in the whole affair.

However, the articles of the so-called Concerned Citizens for Bilingual Unity (CCBU) in both local Friday papers are an insult to this country.

Anyone who read the whole article now knows the true philosophy of this group, all of which is contrary to the nice label they have tacked on themselves.

With two-thirds of the Penetanguishene Secondary School enrolment being from French-language primary schools, it seems ludicrous that some 40 courses are offered in English at the secondary level and only five in French.

A decision has now been made, yet the CCBU persists in trying to delay and obstruct progress on the construction of a new French-language secondary school.

A more tolerant bilingual attitude should be expressed. LIVE UP TO YOUR NAME, Concerned Citizens for Bilingual Unity, or cease and desist — enough is enough!

I wish to congratulate you, the general public of this area, for not getting involved with such a negative group as the CCBU and I hope you will continue to show the same intelligence and good sense of justice you have shown in the past.

Only tolerance, fair play and justice will keep our country together.

Sincerely,
Gerry Speers

Education Week

The following letters were sent to the editor of this newspaper from pupils at St. John's School, Waubaushene as part of their Education Week celebrations:

Dear Editor,

Education is a real experience. Here is a poem that I made up: E is for everything we do in school.

D is for don't be a fool. U is for us, we work real hard.

C is for catching in the yard.

A is for awful when you're wrong.

T is for trouble when we're gone.

I is for ideas that we make up.

O is for opportunity that fills up our cup.

N is for noise we have plenty of.

And that's what Education is all about.

Yours truly,
Heather Stevens

Dear Editor,

I am writing to you to tell you what I think about Education Week.

I am satisfied with what I am getting in education. When I grow up I would like to have the ability to work for the community. I would like to help the community by being a secretary. A secretary needs special requirements. I know my education will do that.

Sincerely,
Sheila Moreau

Dear Editor,

I am fine. How are you?

I like school on Mondays and Fridays because we have baseball. I think we are responsible for helping the teacher and our parents. Bye.

Dear Editor,

Education means growing up and being free to learn and to teach.

When I grow up it means getting a job and using my talents and enjoying it. My teacher is doing her best. My parents are doing their best too.

Sincerely,
Cory Therrien

Dear Editor,

I think that Education Week is good because your parents can come and watch us work. Or they can talk with your teacher. Our teacher takes in her own time to talk to our parents. And our job is just to be good and to learn.

Yours truly,
Denise

Dear Editor,

I like school every day.

It's fun. I like school on Friday most of all because we go home. I think I have a lot of responsibility to make my report card. Our teacher has a lot of responsibility to teach us to learn.

Yours truly,
Denise

our taxes. And to make sure that we get to school safely.

Dear Editor,

How are you? I am fine. I like school sometimes. On Monday when I have to get up that's when I hate school. Sometimes I stay up too late, that's why I can't get up in the morning.

When I grow up I am going to be a truck driver. That is what I want to be. The subjects in school that help me are Math, Science and Geography.

Sincerely,
Randy Tournour

Dear Editor,

I like Education Week because our Moms and Dads put us in school. The teachers are good to the students. The children are good to the teachers. We learn more about our work.

Sincerely,
Bruce

Dear Editor,

I think Education Week is about learning and the parent should get involved with the school.

I want my mom to know what I am doing in school.

I am happy that we have Education week because our parents can help us more if we have problems in our work.
