Hobart news

by Beulah M. Barr

Rev. Allan Barnes, Pastor of Westmount United Church, Orillia, will be in charge of the Hobart Memorial Church Service to be held on Sunday afternoon, May 18 at 2:30 p.m.

The Wright Singers of Newmarket will supply the music for the occasion. A Memorial Service is held annually at the Church and friends from near and far congregate under its roof to participate. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend this special service.

A goodly number of people attended the Auction Sale held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wright on May 30th.

Mr. J. J. Dunn, of Barrie, visited in the area on Tuesday.

The Seedling Tree digging and planting at Midhurst and area has been continuous throughout the past weeks regardless of weather conditions, as early planting is essential. A number of area residents have been employed there.

No one can say the Measles disease is not as persistent now as in days of yore. Some local folk can testify to that. Some children are still falling heir to it much to their displeasure. If it isn't one thing its another.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Garner, of Barrie, visited at Deepdale Farm over the weekend. Ross was a former produce manager at Loblaws in Orillia and is now with Loblaws in Collingwood. Mrs. Garner works part-time for Loblaws in Barrie. They have been spending several days readying their cottage at Lake Joseph for the warm season ahead as well as beautifying the grounds with flower beds, etc.

Vandalism still major concern

At a council meeting in Victoria Harbour, Monday night, residents once again expressed their concern over vandalism in the village.

Clint Todd, owner of the Harbour Hardware, told council that once again he has had more windows smashed to his store.

"If we're just into May what will happen when the summer comes?" asked Todd.

Councillor Jack Baks told Todd he intends to go to the OPP and see what can be done about the situation.

Tennis club in a bind

It was proposed by the Midland Tennis Club at last Thursday's Parks Board meeting that the Midland YMCA take over its management.

Presently one man is running the tennis club and it was thought that since the YMCA is close it could do the job just as well.

Other residents present at the meeting also expressed concern about the garbage in village and teenagers hanging around.

"It's going to be a terrible place if we let young people run the place," said one resident.

Although no solution has yet been made, Douglas Jackson, reeve, agreed that he and Baks would go to the police to help remedy the problem.
