

In concert Sunday

Andre Forget, Nonie Thompson and Dan Irvine will compete with seven other amateur songwriters and performers this Sunday afternoon at the Blue Mountain Bandshell in Collingwood. These three were chosen from among 25 entrants in the area. Top prize is $500. Three major record companies and three music publishers will be the final judges. Creativity and recording potential are the criteria.

Three key meetings planned

Next regular meeting of Simcoe County Council has been slated for June 17 at Midhurst starting at 10 a.m.

Meanwhile members of Midland PUC plan to meet on June 16 for their next regular meeting. It is scheduled for a 7:30 p.m. start.

And it appears members of Midland council will be meeting again this month although it had been hoped to stage only one regular meeting per month during June, July and August.

Monday night councillors agreed to meet again on June 23 at 7:30 p.m. to review a number of pressing matters.

New Flos WI to meet again in September

by Mrs. A. Wanless
The Ladies Aid of Knox Church Centre Flos held their June meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Train, with fourteen members attending. Mrs. Len McFadden presided at the meeting and Mrs. Greta Minty was secretary. The motto commented on was "Trust in the Lord at all times" and hymn 527, "Saviour, like a shepherd lead us" was sung and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. The scripture reading by Mrs. McFadden was Romans 13. A biblical verse containing the word "Tribute" was the roll call.
