

Knights say thanks to four trustees

John McCullough

by Doug Reed
Members of the Huronia Council of the Knights of Columbus kept an annual tradition alive Saturday night when they presented awards of merit, this time to four school board trustees.

At an annual banquet and dance to mark the occasion Mary Jo Quilty and Lloyd LaPlume, trustees on the Simcoe County Roman Catholic School Board along with John McCullough and Alvin Gravelle, Simcoe County Board of Education trustees were praised for the manner in which they have given service to their community(s).

Bernard Leclaire, past grand knight, in introducing each of the award winners at ceremonies held at the Wyebridge Community Centre, extolled the virtues of each recipient.

He said it has been a few years since the Huronia Council of the Knights of Columbus (Penetanguishene) started "a program that we thought had merit. We would attempt to give some recognition to our fellow man who stands up in our community - it may be by informing people of their rights, of making others aware of choices they may have in order to make our society a better one in which to live.

"It may be just a sharing of personal experiences to assist someone less fortunate than others.

"Many times this person is criticized by his peers because they feel he is saying what they don't want to hear."

Leclaire went on to say, "That as Knights of Columbus we are asked many times to try to recognize in all men that fact that they have talents."

He said, Knights of Columbus members should not only be "the first to recognize this person but we should be ready to tell our fellow man of his capabilities."

Leclaire observed, "We should not be slow about such things. We must adopt the slogan 'do it now' since the time to do this is now when we are all here not when some of us have been put on the worn-out list."
