Coldwater

by E. Lorraine Orr
Coldwater Memorial Library will be closed July 20 to Aug. 4 while the librarian Mona Beach is on vacation.

Linden Tree Nursery of Orillia is to do a consultation and presentation of the library grounds. The cellarway has been painted by Lloyd Attridge and Jim Williams. The flagstone path leading to the library is to be lifted and reset and the step is to be repaired.

It was decided by the board not to have a library booth in the Coldwater Fall Fair.

Mark your calendar for Saturday, July 19. This is the date for a dance at the Community Centre sponsored by the Coldwater Fall Fair board. Music will be by The Blue Diamond Trio. Admission is $3.50 per person and tickets are available now from John Jennett, 686-3341; John Orr, 686-7847, or Shirley Boyd 835-2297.

Their first trip to Canada has been a memorable one for Mary and T.H. Vester and son Niels of Denmark. They are visiting with relatives June and Aage Lolk (Coldwater Canoe company).

While here they visited the Science Centre, Ontario Place and went to the top of the CN Tower in Toronto, and rode the Che Cheemaun ferry to Manitoulin Island. They also visited their daughter Linda at Arrowhead Ranch in Collingwood.

Residents of Coldwater and the surrounding area (Severn Falls, Big Chute, T-Lake, North River, Township of Matchedash, Bayview Hill, Coldwater, Rural Routes 1,2,3 and 4; Moonstone, Horse Shoe Valley, Mount St. Louis, Eady, Black Lake, Carley) were generous with their donations to the Canadian Cancer Society this year with a total amount of $4,318.50.

Campaign chairperson Kathleen Galbraith wishes to thank everyone who donated and everyone who gave of their time to canvass.

Coldwater Lions Club's third annual Canoe Race provided a good afternoon's entertainment on July 1.

Spectators were stationed all along the river route from the starting point at Laughlin's Falls to the Grey Street bridge in Coldwater.

Thirteen crews participated in the Stock Class with the first prize going to Michael Plue and Bill Bleadall of Coldwater with a time of one hour and 24 minutes. Placing second were Jim O'Connor and Mark Sauve of Coldwater, one hour and 29 minutes.

John Kirk and Murray Hall with a time of one hour and 32 minutes took third place.

There were five entries from the local fire departments. Coldwater's crew of Randy Fagan and Bradley Silk were first with Port Severn placing second and third with Mark Lamerioux and Ivan Simonds, and Laurie Budarick and Lorne Vessair.

It wasn't all serious paddling as three firemen from Port Severn namely Bob Murrell, Brad Lamoreaux and Roger Pauze, clowned their way down river, dressed in costume, and assisted by an outboard motor attached to their double canoe. The winner of the lucky draw for a canoe was Beth Brown Rauhala of Toronto.

Have you returned your questionnaire regarding senior citizen housing in Coldwater? If not, please do it NOW! Persons over fifty-five years of age are urged to complete these forms.

If you have misplaced the one received in the mail, another one is available from the Clerk's office.

It is imperative that at least 150 completed forms be returned before July 11 to the firm conducting the survey. This will help them in convincing the Ministry of Housing there is a definite need in Coldwater. Any questions you wish to ask may be directed to Mrs. Gladys Dale, Dr. Robert Brown, Harry Cuming or George Deavitt.

This is your last chance to win a car at the annual Figure Skating Club's Elimination Draw at the Coldwater Community Centre on July 12.

Tickets are $10 each for the draw only and may be purchased from Shirley Jennett, Peter Ostertag (Family Footwear store) and David and Ella Reid (Reid Travel). Come to the dance, to enjoy the fun of the draw. Tickets for dance only $3.50 per person.

The Coldwater Business Association has become a reality following the meeting of June 18 when a total of 37 paid-up members were realized.

A delegation met with MPP Gordon Smith regarding the unsatisfactory size and placement of signs identifying Coldwater along the approaching highways.

A representative group will attend the July council meeting to complain about the parking conditions on the main street of Coldwater.

The following committees have been formed: Advertising - Bill Leymus, Russ Creighton and Earl Brandon. Promotion - Jelte Bakker, Ray Green, Elmer Strongitharm and Gary Brandon. Roads and signs - Wilf Martin, Don Galbraith and John Holgate. Membership - Ken Athron.

Edenvale couple celebrates 60th

by Mrs. A. Giffen
Congratulations to Brian Giffen, who recently graduated from the University of Guelph. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Giffen attended the graduation ceremony.

Congratulations also go to Bill McNabb, who graduated with a B.E. in Math and Computer Science from Western University.

On June 15, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giffen were pleasantly surprised when their family held an Open House for them at Edenvale Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Giffen celebrated their 60th Wedding anniversary on March 10, but they were in Florida at the time. So on June 15 Mrs. Giffen celebrated a birthday. It was a lovely day and full of surprises, seeing many of their friends, neighbours and relatives. They are now living at Grove Park Home in Barrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Giffen and Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Giffen attended a family pool party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ingram in Port Credit. They have also recently visited Mr. and Mrs. John Williams (the former Joyce Partridge) in Stouffville.

Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Giffen and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Giffen attended the Memorial Service at Relessey, then went to a Golden wedding anniversary at Dufferin Oaks, Shelburne.
