Coldwater

by E. Lorraine Orr
Farmers' Market is open again in Coldwater.

Tables displaying home-baking, crocheted and knitted articles and fresh vegetables are set up in front of the Community Centre every Saturday morning commencing at 9.

Vendors will not be charged for space, but must supply their own tables.

At a recent Community Centre meeting a letter was read from Mrs. Shirley Jennett complaining about the admission charge to parents who wish to help their children with their skates on roller skating night.

Many complaints have been received about this matter and the board members have decided that parents of young children will be allowed in the arena without charge.

The firm of Oliver Heating has been given the job of maintaining the Community Centre furnace for the 1980-81 season.

The upstairs hall has been posted for occupancy of only 200 persons at any time.

The Deputy-clerk position in Coldwater has not yet been permanently filled. Although Council has received approximately 30 applications they have not yet made a final choice but hope to do so very soon.

Meanwhile, because of the heavy work-load at the village office brought about by the issuing of property tax bills, it has been necessary to hire temporary experienced help to assist the village clerk, Nancy Barron.

Council has received a letter from the Coldwater United Church Pastoral Charge requesting a stop be put to the showing of a certain type of adult movies at the Coldwater Mini Theatre.

After some discussion Council decided that adults had the right to decide for themselves whether they wished to see the films.

Fred McKean was the spokesman for a delegation of residents from Community Centre Drive and Sunset Crescent complaining about the high weeds on vacant lots and roadside ditches in the area.

Property owners who do not cut these weeds will have it done by the village workmen and will be charged for the service.

Mr. McKean was also concerned about vandalism in the village, especially following the slashing of the tires on his car.

He asked for an OPP officer to be on patrol in the village at all times. Council advised this was not possible but they would request the police to increase their patrols.

A letter is to be sent to Shelley Fell of "Hair-styles by Shelley" advising her to provide more parking for her customers. This is a follow-up to a complaint by neighbor John Waterson regarding the damaging of grass at the front of his property caused by people parking their cars.

A request was received from the # Market opens again

Coldwater Lions to have the main street of the Village closed to traffic on Aug. 8 to permit them to hold a carnival and street dance. Council is to investigate the insurance situation regarding the re-routing of buses, before they can give their sanction.

Approval has been given to the Ministry of Natural Resources for them to fell trees in the area of the village reservoir. This will add $544 to the village coffers as there are 68 cords of red pine at $8 per cord.

Come and enjoy afternoon tea and bake sale, as well as a flea market at Coldwater Canadiana on Wednesday, July 30, 2-4 p.m. in the old log house. There will also be a showing of the paintings of Mr. George Dick.

Enjoy a cup of tea or a cool drink under a sun-umbrella on the side lawn of the Riverside Centre in Coldwater on the occasion of the Coldwater Horticultural Society's second annual Summer Flower Show, at 2 p.m. on Thursday, July 24 (tomorrow).

Sorry to report Cliff Tregenza and Jack Dunlop are patients in the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, Orillia.

Congratulations to John and Mary Bobik of Black Lake on the occasion of their 50th anniversary. An open house was held at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Ella and David Reid, also of Black Lake. Visitors came from as far away as Paris, France, Chicago and New Jersey.

The annual "Gill" reunion was held last week at the home of Harold and Lillian Gill of RR 1, Waubaushene. It was a double event, as Mrs. Gertie Gill was celebrating her birthday.

Fifty-three relatives attended, including all seven of Gertie's children, 17 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren. A special guest was Mrs. Gill's sister, Edith Grandle of Regina, Sask.

The sympathy of the community is extended the family of the late Mrs. Wm. (Minnie) Boyd of Moonstone who passed away recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wright and little son Gregory returned several days ago from a motor trip to the Western Provinces where they visited many points of interest along the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Arnold (nee Gibson) and family of RR. Barrie, vacationed in Germany for several weeks recently and viewed first hand the lifestyle and culture of the people there.

Mrs. Annie Richards is enjoying her home on the Mount St. Louis Road following several months spent in the USA and a visit to Australia with her daughter. Welcome home.

Two halves make a whole it is said and proof of that is seen when one views the charming new home of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Russell located on the site of their former dwelling, against the natural background of Medonte hills and trees on the Mount St. Louis Road.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Butt, of Toronto have spent various days at their House on the Corner, gardening and tending the grounds. Their daughter, Nancy, completed her course in Business Administration at the University and is now employed in a Toronto Bank as an Administration trainee. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Moran of Toronto have enjoyed some quiet days at their House on the Hill.

The air was filled with the Sound of Music at Midhurst Museum on Sunday July 13. when Scottish Day was celebrated and enjoyed by a large crowd of people. The program was most enjoyable as always and the audience received full measure, tapped down and running over. Five Pipe and Drum Bands, a Gaelic Choir, Schools of Dancing students, Scottish dancing, the Clachan Band and Ballads of Scotland sung by Tom Park of Anten Mills, the Irish Balladeer in North America. Thanks so much

by Cindy Lockhart
Don't forget the Annual Summer Silent Auction is now on at the Centre and it only runs until Aug. 2.
Get your bids in early. There are a great variety of items ranging from new furniture, antiques, handmade crafts etc.
Someone will be at the Centre on Hwy 93 every day from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m. so come and have a look, maybe you will see something you want either in our Auction or in our Bargain Basement.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish Wyevale a very Happy 100th Birthday. From what I have heard their celebrations were a great success.
I would like to wish the Relf's all the best in their new home in Midland, and would like to welcome our new neighbours Doug and Wendy Carincross and their children Mark and Shannon to our community.

Visitors with Mrs. Marg Armstrong were Mrs. Mary Woods and Mrs. Eileen Gillespie and also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elrick.
Gord, Darlene and Leanne Eakley visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Armstrong and family for a few days in their new home in Cambridge.
