A golfer's welcome

Ross Herbert of Graham Swales Ltd., Midland, displays his window sign welcoming all golfers to the 9th Annual 30,000 Islands Golf Tournament. The tournament, sponsored by Graham Swales, will be held Aug. 9 and 10 at the Midland Golf and Country Club with over 40 clubs from across Ontario participating.

30,000 Island Tournament a popular event for golfers

One of the biggest and most popular golf tournaments in the district will be held in Midland next weekend when 160 entrants will take part in the 9th Annual 30,000 Islands Golf Tournament. The event will be held at the Midland Golf and Country Club Aug. 9 and 10.

The tournament, run by the 30,000 Islands committee and sponsored by Graham Swales of Midland, will this year host over 40 golf clubs from all across Ontario.

These 160 golfers to be excepted all had to have a maximum handicap of 20 to enter.

Because of its well-known popularity the tournament, which had a closing entry date of July 23, was completely filled by July 9.

Over 70 prizes donated by local merchants will be awarded Sunday after the two-day tournament comes to an end.

Graham Swales will award a trophy from Garner Sports for the best gross of the weekend.

Huronian Travel Service will also present a trophy for the best net while CP Air will award a flight for two for anyone fortunate enough to get a hole in one.

The participants will arrive Friday to start the weekend off with a practise round.

Tee-off time is Saturday Aug. 9 at 7 a.m. and will finish Sunday afternoon.

First place almost in Therriens' mitt

With a 12 and three record in Olympia Fastball, Therriens who are close to a first place finish, defeated Mr. Submarine Tuesday night by a 4-2 score.

Mr. Submarine scored their two runs in the top half of the first inning but were held scoreless for the remainder of the game.

The "Subs" had a double play in the fifth inning on an Alex Sibbald fly and threw Bob Lapham out at first base.

Winning pitcher was Bob Lapham of Therrien's who pitched a one hitter and struck out eight batters.

If Therriens can defeat Adco Tire in a game scheduled for next Wednesday they will be sure of a first place league finish.

Senior hockey playoffs on

T-Ball strikes again

In T-Ball action Tuesday night at Parkview School 10 teams of excited youngsters anxiously waited to meet their opponents on the field.

Dairy Queen won 5-0 by default over the A&W Drive-In, while McQuirter Real Estate on diamond number two also won their game by default over Pantry Shelf.

In diamond number three a close game was going on between Bell Canada and Arcade Guardian Pharmacy.

Bell Canada won by a 19-15 score with Chris Kinnear and Jeremy Downer both hitting home runs.

Bourgeois Motors were defeated in their game against A&P Store with a 18-15 score.

Home runs were by Gary Puddicombe and Kevin Puddicombe both of A&O.

In the last diamond J. Harvey Surveyors defeated Municipal Savings and Loan by a 24-19 score.

Jason Bennet and Jonathon Poole both playing for the Surveyors knocked out home runs.
