Have you picked up your new telephone book? They are available at the telephone office now. "45 Years in the Bush" is a true story, written by Victor

Connor of Coldwater, telling of life at Severn Falls and the Big Chute during the construction of the hydro-electric facilities there. Victor and his wife Eva raised their family at the Big Chute while he worked for the Hydro. Vic has had 100 copies of his book published and is offering them for sale at $12 per copy. Persons wishing to purchase a copy may do so by contacting Vic Connor at 686-7727, or writing to Box 46, Coldwater.

Visiting with their grandparents, Kay and Al Brand, are Kelly Hodge and Emily Macdonald, both from Toronto. The girls have been busy sightseeing and have been to the dog show at Barrie, the Kempenfeldt craft show and Santa's Village. Wrae and John Swaile and children, John and Tracy, have returned from vacationing in Toronto and Cochrane, where they visited with Wrae's sister, Joan Ewen and family.

John and Anna Cropper of Sunset Crescent are enjoying visits from parents, Jack and Dorothy Cropper of Runcorn, Cheshire, England. Anna's mother Josie Winer of Huyton, Liverpool, and cousin Dianne Cristian, also of Liverpool, have also been visiting. The Connor family reunion was held on Aug. 2 with 52 relatives enjoying dinner at the Coldwater Legion. The group then gathered at the home of Eva and Victor Connor, Grey Street.

Mrs. Beryl Gregory of Schomberg visited with Mrs. Michael Wassell and the John Orr family for the holiday weekend.

Andy Jones, son of Mrs. Kathleen Jones of Main Street South, has returned from an extended holiday with his friend David Bratt at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bratt in Thorold, Ontario.

Stephen Galang, son of Mrs. Mona Galang of Harriet Street has been accepted at Fanshawe Community College in London, Ontario. He will be studying a course in Mechanical Engineering Technology.

Melanie Fontaine and Valerie Orr enjoyed a day of swimming at Six Mile Provincial Park last week.

Visiting with Victor and Eva Connor has been their son Gordon and his wife Jean, and grandchildren Farn and Tracey Connor, grandson Ron and his wife Bonney Connor, all of Tungstan, N.W.T. and cousins Joe and Mildred Connor from Terrace Drive, Delta, BC.

A surprise birthday party was given for Irene Bannerman by her sister, Dorothy Sallows, last week.

A large bell is now decorating the lawn in front of Georgina and Jack Waterson's home on Grey Street.

After Georgie purchased the bell at an auction sale last week, she discovered it had been previously owned by Bill Wylie, Sr. of Coldwater.

Mr. Wylie purchased the bell from a farm sale at Uhtoff many years ago. It had been used at one time to call the farm workers in from the fields for meals.

The Watsons plan to install their new bell on the roof of their garage.

Edenvale news

by Mrs. A. Giffen

Great goings on were happening down by the bridge at the river recently, when a milk commercial was made on the property of Mr. and Mrs. A. Giffen and Mr. and Mrs. G. Giffen. The commercial featured a woman and child walking by the river through the long grass.

Congratulations to the Minesing OASA teams who competed in a tournament in Sarnia on the weekend. The Midgets came out in second place and the Juveniles took fourth spot out of the 16 teams competing.

Aubrey and Graydon Giffen enjoyed a two-day bus trip to Dundas and Carleton Counties with the North Simcoe Soil and Crop Association recently.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Giffen and family were Clair Davey of Toronto and Ana Vauz of Portugal.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Ball had Mrs. Fern Dougall of Weston, Ken Thorpe and family of Orillia and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ball of Port McNicoll as their Sunday guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McLure of Brampton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Giffen.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Giffen were Mr. and Mrs. D. O'Shaughnessy and family of Westland, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Greg Giffen and Jason of Wyevale; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Adams and family and Mrs. Owen of Barrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Giffen enjoyed a weekend visiting at Chatham.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Giffen visited with Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wood of Wyebridge on Sunday. They also had Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pinnigar of Toronto as their weekend guests.

Anne Giffen participated in a golf tournament in Belleville over the weekend.
