

Midland wins Mets tournament

Midland Athenian Raiders took first place and $200 in prize money at the annual Elmvale Mets Softball Tournament held in the village last weekend.

Approximately 400 fans took in the games, involving 12 teams from all over.

As runners-up in the meet, the Elmvale Mets came away with $100 while Rivalda Tavern of Toronto managed third.

Tournament matches kicked off early Saturday morning when the Phepston team faced the Elmvale Animals, coming away with a 7-5 win. Bob Widdis of the Mets pitched a no-hitter the next game, as his team downed Vasey 1-0. Rivalda Tavern outplayed Schlambs 5-0 while Georgian Sports beat Wyevale 5-0. Minesing squeezed by Wyebridge by a score of 5-4, and finally the Midland Athenian Raiders began their string of wins with a 4-1 victory over New Lowell.

In the quarter finals, Elmvale Mets defeated Phepston 2-0, Rivalda won over Georgian Sports of Barrie 2-1 after 10 innings, and Midland outscored Minesing 3-1 also drawing a bye into the finals.

It was there that the host team Elmvale Mets advanced to the playoffs after beating Rivalda 1-0. Elmvale lost to Midland in a deciding game by a score of 9-1.

One of the outstanding players of the tournament had to be Elmvale Mets pitcher Mike Stone who threw 15 innings of scoreless ball before tiring in the match against Midland.

The one day event went smoothly due mainly to the excellent organization as well as those helping out at the gate and in the booth.

Go get them Doug!

The Elmvale Mets sponsored their annual tournament this past weekend at the park and the day began with a game between Phepston and the Elmvale Animals. Doug Kelly of Phepston seemed to have the right idea when it came to batting.
