Lapere no ostrich at MGCC winning Emu Trophy

The emu is an Australian non-flying bird, that is related to the ostrich.

However, there is a different emu in this story, the Emu Trophy. In recent tournament held at the Midland Golf and Country Club Ladies' section, Kay Lapere won the distinguished cup after an exciting 3 hole tie breaker.

Lapere was tied with Eileen Denny for the Emu Trophy until the dramatic tie breaker.

Ashley Walkley, from Emu Wines, was present to award Lapere her trophy, as well as a large basket of wine.

Elsewhere in the ladies' section, the team of Marilyn Richmond, Wanda Brodeur and

and Ruth Rowland in a game of best 2 balls out of 3.

High, fast ball

Don Seaman of Midland usually catches for Royal Bank in the Civitan House League Baseball schedule, but proves that he can put on a pretty impressive performance on the mound as well. Team mate, Sean Murph, looks on expectantly.

Waltenbury man behind plate and double play

Jonathan Poole, of J. Harvey Surveyors was his team's hero, or at least he ought to have been, in a game played between them and Pantry Shelf Tuesday in T-Ball action at the Parkview School playground.

J. Harvey Surveyors won the game with a narrow margin of 22-20, largely due to the hard work of Terry Waltenbury, catcher for the Surveyors.

Waltenbury was the key man behind a double play that may have well stopped the tying run from coming across the plate.

J. Harvey Surveyors will now face Arcade Pharmacy in the consolation finals to be held at Little Lake Park, Sept. 6, commencing at 9 a.m.

Brian Orser: good chance for gold

Penetanguishene's skating sensation, Brian Orser has a very good chance to take the overall championship in the skating competition in Oberstorf, West Germany.

Orser finished first overall in France last week.

As they say, though, there's always room for improvement, and that's exactly what Orser is doing.

He now has a second place finish in figures in the West Germany competition, yesterday entering the short program which counts for 20 per cent of the points.

Figures count for 30 per cent of the point count.

He has his biggest task ahead of him today, though, when he enters the long program. This part of the competition counts for 50 per cent of the total marking.

Needless to say, Orser is quickly becoming one of this country's top competitors in men's figure skating.

Orser's father, Butch Orser, says, "his free skating has always been outstanding, but he has worked on his figures, and the work seems to be paying off."

THE CRITICS AGREE NOW THERE IS MORE.

"A brilliant 'new' movie ... one of the great moviemaking experiences. If you've seen it before you'll have to see it again." — Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun Times

"The Special Edition' is better, surer, swifter and clearer than the original film... well worth a second encounter." — Charles Champlin, LA Times

"Close Encounters' is moviemaking at its best ... a dazzling and inspirational film." — Rona Barrett, ABC-TV
