

50th anniversary

Aug. 29 marked the memorable occasion in the life and times of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lounsbury. That was the day the Horrell Street couple, shown

Mom, here's a reminder for youngsters

Attention Brownies, Guides, Pathfinders and Rangers, next Tuesday evening both old and new members must register at one of three locations if you live in Midland, Balm Beach or Wyevale. Registration will take place at all three locations from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 9.

In Midland at the Civic Centre, at Wyevale at the public school and at Balm Beach at the Surf... these will be the locations next week for registration night.

Port McNicoll council delays Fr. school issue vote

Port McNicoll Council decided Tuesday night to hold up a decision on whether or not a question concerning the voters' support or non-support of the recent decision to build a French high school in Penetanguishene should be placed on the ballots in the municipal elections in November.

The matter will now wait until a special meeting can be arranged for council when more members are present.

Reg Quesnelle was against the form the question was taking, stating that it would be "misleading to the voters should it be placed on the ballots, adding that it was nothing more than a "petition" if printed there."

Quesnelle reiterated his stand against the move, declaring that he would not reverse his opinion.

The matter was brought up in a resolution in an earlier council meeting last month, but Quesnelle reminded the council that it was a majority vote, not a unanimous decision.

One thing that came out of the discussion though was that the council had basically supported the idea upon the basis of taxation, and not the French-English issue.
