

Gryphon Theatre group, Barrie, gears up for market

Autumn means antiques! At least it does to the 80 members of the Gryphon Theatre Guild at Barrie. On Sept. 18, 19 and 20

the Guild will sponsor its Eighth Annual Antique Show and Sale.

Once again the Armoury on Park Street in Barrie will be the site of this exciting event which has become a part of Barrie's fall scene.

A year of preparation goes into this show making it a delightful treat. The committee, chaired by Marg Kenny, has carefully considered every detail to make this the best show yet.

The 26 dealers have been selected to represent a variety of antique goods so that whatever your interest may be, you'll be stimulated at this show.

Jewellery, china, silver, coins, medals and maps, art works from the past, furniture and even oriental rugs will be displayed both for viewing and for sale.

The quality of goods will be first class! The variety admirable! You must not miss this nostalgic trip into the past - and possibly a profitable trip into the future!

The more than 80 women of the Gryphon Theatre Guild who sponsor this annual event give generously of their time to support the Gryphon Foundation. They provide theatre ushers, organize subscription sales, assist with the office work plus opening night and post-theatre parties.

They also conduct fund-raising activities, the most important of which is the Antique Show.

Treats

Included in the planning are two food committees. Special treats for opening night guests will be under Mary Lower's supervision. Audrey Macmillan is convener of the luncheon committee where homemade snacks, sweets and beverages may be purchased on Friday and Saturday.

Opening night will be a gala event with admission price set at $3.50 and doors opening at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Friday from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. the show will continue with a $1.50 charge for admission.

There will be a special door prize with the winning ticket drawn at 4 p.m. Saturday. Mr. Eugene Rae of Raebinoft Antiques has kindly donated this prize.

At this time also, the lucky winner of the beautiful handmade "Guild Quilt" will be drawn. Tickets at $1 each will be available until the time of the draw.

It's going to be a wonderful show! Something for everyone! Don't miss it!

Poisonous plants indoors and out

Identification of the most common poisonous plants which are found around the home - both indoors and out - will be subject of a free program at the Penetanguishene Municipal Council Chambers on Tuesday, Sept. 16 at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker for the program is Jack Lord of the Royal Botanical Gardens. The program is sponsored by the Penetanguishene Public Library in co-operation with the Royal Botanical Gardens in Hamilton, the Georgian Bay Regional Library System and the Outreach Ontario program of the Ministry of Culture and Recreation.

Admission is free and everyone is welcome. Mr. Lord will use colored slides to illustrate his program on the various types of poisons found in plants and how those poisons operate.
