Wyebridge news

by John Dennis

Wyebridge Community Centre Board of Directors held a special meeting last Wednesday in an effort to resolve and organize some of the unfinished business which had piled up over the summer months.

Among the topics discussed were the new park, the creation of a bingo night, the installation of a new furnace, upcoming dances, and the Board's involvement in the local baseball teams.

One way in which the board hopes to raise money is through the benefit baseball game, being played Sunday, Sept. 21, at 2 p.m.

The game, to be played on the old ball park, will feature the CKVR No Stars.

Wyevale news

by Jeanne Webb

The community is saddened by the passing of one of its residents, Mrs. Rose Nightingale. Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. George Nightingale and his family, in the loss of a dear wife and mother.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Capling on the arrival of a second son. Kevin Darren arrived in the Penetang General Hospital August 14.

The Beavers, Cubs and Scouts, of the First Wyevale Group, held their registration night in the United Church basement on September 3. Any boys, still wishing to join, will be pleased to know that they may do so at the first regular meetings. These will be as follows:

Beavers - ages 5, 6 and 7 at the United Church, Thursday, Sept. 11, from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.

Cubs, ages 8, 9 and 10 at the School Gymnasium, Wednesday, Sept. 10, 6:50 - 8:30.

Scouts - ages 11, 12 13 and 14 at the United Church on Tuesday, Sept. 9, from 7-9 p.m.

The registration fee is $10 per boy for the 1980-81 season.

Enumeration is over once again. Some people are breathing a sigh of relief, after facing cross dogs, endless sandhills and steps and standing in the middle of a conglomeration of roads, wondering which way to go. These are a few of the hazards they face. Seriously, thanks for all the kind co-operation from everyone, especially when called upon at an inconvenient hour.

It is back to school again after two months of wonderful holidaying. There is no more sleeping in, no more lazing around, no more watching late movies. It's up and at it, to catch that bus, a piece of toast in one hand and a bunch of slithering books in the other. God Bless you all!

Centre meet

Admission to the game is $2 for adults, 50 cents for those 12-18, and children under 12 are admitted free of charge.

Wyebridge's population is down by two with the departure of Alex and Mary Moreau to their new home in Penetanguishene. Over the years, Alex and Mary became good friends with most Wyebridge residents and operated the local post office and store for many years.

Alex and Mary all the best in their new home, their absence will be felt for some time.

Sept. 3 was a very special day for one local resident. Susan Scott celebrated her seventh birthday.

Susan received many delightful gifts from her seven party guests. Jim and Sharon, Susan's mom and dad, and brother Steven also expressed best wishes.

One of the village's most respected citizens celebrated a birthday this past Sunday, Sept. 7.

Armour Reynolds, who could wire a house in his sleep, is now one more year towards retirement. Armour is kept busy around the village using his electrical expertise to rescue us not so handy do-it-yourselfers when we challenge the world of appliances, pumps, and other electrical gadgets. But then, every electrician should have an outlet.

Noel Sims recently returned from a three week holiday in England. While there Noel enjoyed visiting with his brother and sister and other family members.

Noel was born in Torquay, a popular seaside resort in England and emigrated to Canada in 1927. Welcome back Noel.

Anne Fredette and her two children arrived for a surprise visit on mom and dad, Hazel and Earl Preston. Anne enjoyed the company of her parents for one week then returned to Sorel, Quebec and husband, Al.

A story of natural love.

As children they were shipwrecked on a lost tropical island. They grow tall and beautiful. And when their love happens, it is as natural as the sea itself... and as powerful.
