

Big Brothers...togetherness

"Big Brother Week" in the Midland-Penetanguishene area concluded last Saturday with a tour of the Historic Naval and Military Establishments in Penetanguishene. Potential "Big Brothers" used the tour to get to know some of the boys in the "Big Brother". Those interested in learning more about the organization should contact Dan Downing at 526-3104.

Supply of Big Brothers always low

...can you help?

by Don Lawrence

Big Brothers of Midland celebrated the end of a successful Big Brothers Week, Sunday in their new office at McGuire House in Penetanguishene.

Members from the Midland-Penetanguishene area attended a wine and cheese party which officially opened the office.

Dan Downey, president of the Midland-Penetanguishene chapter of the organization says that 12-13 prospective big brothers were reached because of the week.

Thirty-two are still needed for proper matches in the immediate area.

The Big Brothers have been in the area for approximately seven years and now operate with the help of a 12 member board and 20 big brothers.

Their aim is to double the number of big brothers before the end of the year.

Memberships for the organization will be sold soon at the price of $2.

A monthly meeting will be held which the public are welcome to attend.

The public may obtain more information at these meetings once they have been scheduled.

It takes about a month for an application to be processed for a new big brother.

Office

Also sharing the office will be the Good Parenting group, which has been in the area for three years.

They have 10 board members and 15 affiliated groups.

The group operates five "young year place centers", located in Waubashene, Port McNicoll, Wyebidge, Regent St. School in Midland and the Salvation Army office in Midland.

The sixth center will run out of McGuire House in Penetanguishene.

Facilities include a reading library, containing books on good parenting and programs such as Systematic Training for Effective Parenting.

The program will run on Wednesday nights in Bavview School in Midland from 7-9 p.m. and is aimed at helping parents of children aged 3-13 understand their children's needs.

The program will run for a length of 19 weeks.

Another program is the drug safety program, run by Dr. Jim Martin of Midland and will begin the last Tuesday in Oct.

Anyone wishing more information on either of these groups can contact Julianna Hervieux, president of good parenting at 549-7326 or Dan Downey, president of Big Brothers at 526-3104 or 322-1660.

A special thanks is sent out to all those people who have helped in the Big Brothers week and particularly in the planning of the official opening of McGuire House, for without them, none of the success realized so far would have been possible.

Ministerial Association

The local ministerial association exists to foster mutual support and understanding among local clergy and to encourage the sharing of goals and activities in local churches.

OUR APOLOGIES

Construction of the announced expansion at Ernst Leitz Limited will begin immediately. We anticipate that during the initial construction period of approximately two weeks the driving of foundation piles and the activity of earth removal equipment may cause noise and vibration that may be felt by residents in the immediate neighbourhood.

We wish to sincerely apologize for any inconvenience that may be caused in this regard and hope for your understanding. It goes without saying that our contractors have been asked to keep noise at an acceptable level.
