Fowl supper great success

The Annual Fowl Supper, held in the United Church Centre, Saturday night October 11, was once again a huge success. The ladies and men outdid themselves with that delicious home cooking and baking, drawing a crowd of about 750 people.

A lovely wedding was solemnized in the Free Methodist Church, Friday evening Oct. 10, when Elda Jean Barber and Terry Williams were joined in marriage. The candlelight service was conducted by Rev. Hubert Schwartz and Rev. Carl Bull of Barrie.

The reception following was held in the Orange Centre where the families and a few close friends enjoyed the evening. It was drawn to their attention that it was Ted and Bessie Webb's 42nd Anniversary that same day.

The Wyevale United Church had a good turnout for their Thanksgiving Service Sunday morning, Oct. 12. The Church was beautifully decorated with an array of fall flowers, vegetables and coloured leaves. Roy Hayward was responsible for this added touch.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Hilda Phillips fell and broke her leg. She is presently in Penetang General Hospital but expects to be transferred to Barrie's Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Roesler and family spent part of last week-end with Mrs. Jean Webb and family.

We welcome Shirley Brock to the village. Shirley will be staying with Marion and Duke Caston for a while.

Wyevale is still thinking Centennial. We are looking forward to viewing a great many coloured slides on the July Centennial Celebrations. These will be shown in the Church Centre, Sunday Night, Oct. 19, at 7:00. There is no charge and everyone is welcome.

Mrs. Lillian Hall and her sister, Mrs. Pearl Goldsmith of Midland, took three weeks in September to travel to Vancouver. They reported a wonderful trip by bus, going out by the southern route, visiting with their sister, Mrs. Ida Birch, at Langley, B.C. On the way home they made stopovers with relatives in Edmonton and Saskatoon. "Travelling is great but it is always good to get home," said Mrs. Hall.

Ladies glad to be home

by Jeanne Webb
Mrs. Lillian Hall of Wyevale and her sister Mrs. Pearl Goldsmith of Midland, have just returned from a three weeks holiday to Vancouver. They reported a wonderful trip by bus, travelling the southern route going out, and visiting their sister, Mrs. Ida Birch at Langley, B.C. On the way home they made stopovers with relatives at Edmonton, Alberta and Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

"Travelling is great but it is always good to get home," said Mrs. Hall.

The Pine Ridge Women's Institute are looking for missing copies of the Tweed-smuir History. They would appreciate it if anyone having a copy borrowed would turn it in at the Lucky Dollar Store.

Wyevale is still thinking Centennial. We are looking forward to seeing a great many coloured slides on the July Centennial Celebrations. These will be shown in the Church Centre, Sunday night, October 19, at 7 p.m. There is no charge. You are welcome to come.
