

Ferguson picked by lawyers

At a meeting of members of the Ontario Branch of The Canadian Bar Association Roderic G. Ferguson of Teskey, Heacock and Ferguson, Midland, was unanimously elected a councilman to represent the province on the council of the national association and also to represent lawyers in the West Electoral District at council meetings of the branch association.

In both instances, the council is the chief governing body of the organization.

The Canadian Bar Association, in existence on a national basis since 1896, is a voluntary organization of Canadian lawyers formed to provide support by the profession, to the profession, so that it may render better service to clients.

This is accomplished by extensive continuing legal education programs, representation to government and other officials of the views of the Bar on topics of current concern: initiation of, reform of, and response to new laws, statutes, regulations, commissions and reports.

Ontario branch of the CBA, the largest branch in the Association, represents over 13,000 lawyers and law students.

Advance poll Saturday

Voters in Midland who want to take advantage of the advance poll to the municipal election on Nov. 10 can do so this Saturday between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. in the Midland town hall.

This year there will be a poll for each ward.

The turnout for the advance poll of the last municipal election was heavy, says the town clerk. Twice as many people as expected, 350, turned out.

Saturday in the town hall voters living in the East Ward will cast their ballots in one poll, and voters who live in the West Ward will cast their ballots in the other poll.

Two polls have been arranged in order to ensure that voters will not be held up this year as some were last time because of the large turnout.

Student charged

Midland town police arrested a Midland Secondary School student last Thursday in the school on a charge of possession of narcotics for the purpose of trafficking.

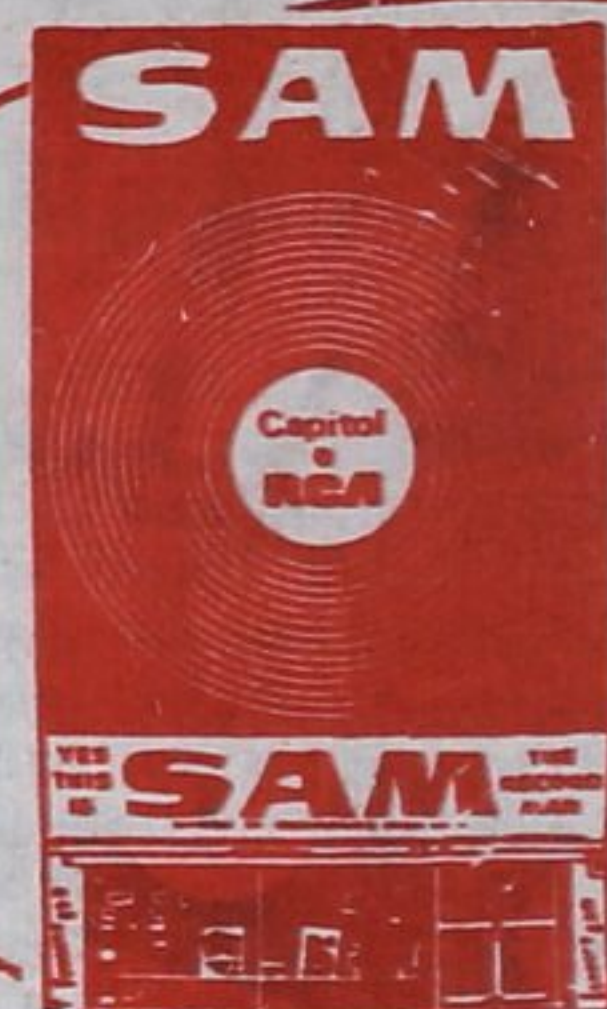

Patrick Ladouceur, 16, of William Street, Victoria Harbour, appeared in provincial court Monday. He is to appear again Nov. 17, when a trial date will be set.
