

ESPSS Report

by Marjory Hammond
Well, Penetang — get ready!!
Today the student body of ESPSS is going out to "blitz" for our citrus fruit campaign. We're hoping to cover the entire town in one night.

Here's something of interest to students. On Nov. 7 we're going to have a dance. There'll be a disc jockey and lots of good music.

The actors and actresses are practising twice a week for Man of LaMancha. Brian Wagg has the lead in the production. From what's been heard the practices are going well and the performances promise to be very good. The "pit band" also practises twice a week, on Tuesdays and Thursday evenings. As of now, the performers and musicians practise separately but they will be getting together soon.

The Music department set a date for this year's concert — Dec.

18. The concert band practises Mondays after school and the stage band practises after school on Wednesdays. With each practice, there is considerable improvement.

Thursday, a number of senior students will be visiting various universities.

It was a busy week for ESPSS athletes as competitions in cross-country, basketball and volleyball were completed.

X-Country

The GBSSA cross-country meet was held in Thornlea last Wednesday. The top 10 runners in each division went on to run in the Ontario's.
