Hard at work

It may be rough around the edges now, but come opening night this scene will be alive! The four people in this picture are all students at ESPSS, and they along with other students and teachers are hard at work preparing this year's school musical, "Man of LaMancha." From left to right are: Jackie Belcourt, (Barber), Brian Wagg, (Don Quixote), Todd Saulnier, (the Padre), and Steve Whittington, (Dr. Carasco). Opening night is Dec. 4, 8 p.m. at ESPSS.

Odesse set for Australian trip thanks to Rotary

by Ken Regan
Mike Odesse, a Penetanguishene photographer and businessman will travel to Australia for six weeks, beginning Feb. 6 and he describes the upcoming trip as "a dream come true."
Odesse's good fortune is the result of a "group study exchange" program that is sponsored by The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International. The program is designed to allow outstanding business or professional men between the ages 25 and 35 to visit, study and experience other nations. The program is a reciprocal one with the sending district of one year acting as host district the following year. For example, Odesse is one of five persons selected from District 701, which includes Midland and other areas such as North Bay. These five will travel to and through District 969, in Australia, and next year the members selected from the Australian district will visit this Canadian district. 969 District While in Australia, Odesse and his Canadian counterparts will travel extensively throughout the 969 district, which is in the general vicinity of Sydney, Australia, returning to Canada, March 20. During that time, Odesse and other group members will learn about Australian culture, business, industry, agriculture and life in general. In return, the Canadian group will be asked to speak to gatherings of Australian citizens, to explain and describe the cross section of life in Canada, with particular emphasis on their own area of the district. When asked if he was surprised to be selected, Odesse said, "Yes I was, quite a bit." Describing the events surrounding his acceptance last Wednesday, (Oct. 22) Odesse stated he did not know what the selection committee was looking for, and furthermore did not know if he would fill the requirements. Considering the high standards set for criteria of selection, Odesse can certainly feel proud of his being chosen as our ambassador to Rotary District 969.

will allow first hand observation of a totally new country and culture, and if time permits, may allow for some photographic work to be performed. In addition, the trip is really "a dream come true," because Odesse had once applied to emigrate to Australia. At that time, he was completing his studies at college and was, unfortunately for him, (fortunately for this area), turned down because of Australia's rigid immigration laws. Those laws stipulate a newcomer must be able to fill an employment need of the country and at that particular time, officials didn't feel his field met those criteria. But that's all behind him now and Mike Odesse is very excited about this unique opportunity. And though he says he does not believe in matters of the occult, such as astrology, he relates an interesting anecdote. On the day he received his notice of acceptance, his horoscope said a certain group would be sponsoring him for a special event. It's Hallowe'en and doesn't fate work in interesting ways?

'Man of La Mancha' coming soon to ESPSS

Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary School is preparing its production "Man of La Mancha", slated to go before the public on Dec. 4, 5 and 6 at 8 p.m. in the school's gymnasium. The high school's production is being directed by John Norton, and the school's version of the classic Broadway musical though in its roughest form at present already shows signs of shaping into a fine production.

The story centres around a period in the life of the legendary romantic hero, Don Quixote and ESPSS student Brian Wagg will have the pleasure and responsibility of that prestigious role. Other principals in the play are Jane Whittington as Aldonza, Quixote's distant love: Celia Dyer plays Sancho and the part of Pedro goes to Marcel Ladouceur. Todd Saulnier plays the Padre. Tickets are on sale now and it might be a good idea to get one soon. Admission cost for adults is $3.00, students $2.00. Tickets may be purchased at Gignac's Children's Wear, Wally's Men's Shop, Books Unlimited and Johnstone's Music Land.

Interest The trip to Australia is of particular interest to Odesse for several reasons; as a professional photographer, the excursion

Citizen briefly

Free hallowe'en party in Penetang

Don't forget the hallowe'en party taking place tonight at High Poyntz Mall in Penetanguishene. The party is for kids 13 years and younger, but parents are welcome to attend the fun.

The festivities get under way at 6 p.m. and continue till 8:30 p.m. with a movie, goodies for the kids and a costume contest.

The whole affair is absolutely free so go out and participate in a safe, organized, fun party for the kids in Penetanguishene.

Fresh paint and skating

Work was underway at Penetanguishene Arena Wednesday, putting a fresh coat of paint on the lines for hockey action, and though details were not available, Ron Marchildon said there will be announcements made soon concerning some special public skating events.

Watch for the notices in this paper.

Extra Gendarmes for hallowe'en

There will be an extra compliment of on-duty police officers to keep an eye on things on hallowe'en night in Penetanguishene.

Penetanguishene Police Chief John Geere said this week, three additional officers will boost the regular team of three men on Friday night.

The move is a precautionary one, made in an effort to discourage any rowdy or destructive behaviour which sometimes accompanies Hallowe'en celebrations.

The extra contingent will also allow for more assistance to the public, should such help be needed for any reason.

Cross-town hockey rivals meet tomorrow

Penetanguishene Junior "C" Kings hockey team is back at it tonight as it takes on Midland Centennials.

Tonight's game takes place in Midland.

Face-off time is set for 8 p.m., at Midland Centennial Arena.

Advance poll set for tomorrow

Tomorrow is the date of the only advance poll to be held in Penetanguishene prior to the municipal elections.

The poll will be at Penetanguishene council chambers, from 9 a.m. - 8 p.m.

Everyone eligible to vote and whose name is on the voters list for Penetanguishene may cast their ballot at that time.
