Woman elected federation head

Mrs. Marion McArthur, of Stayner, is the new president of the Simcoe County Federation of Agriculture.

Mrs. McArthur succeeds Ron Jones of Midland who declined to run for a second term.

The elections were held at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the federation, October 30.

Mrs. McArthur was born and raised in Flos Township and received her education at Elmvale and Midland schools.

She is the wife of Milton McArthur. The McArthurs, who have four children, two girls and two boys, operate a 400 acre beef farm at R.R. 1, Stayner, specializing in pure bred Simmental cattle.

In addition to her other duties, Mrs. McArthur serves as Secretary of the Ontario Simmental Association.

Others elected to the 1981 Executive were - 1st Vice President, Garth Cubitt, of New Lowell; 2nd Vice President, Joe Lindner, of Bradford; and four Executive members - Mike Fitzsimmons, of Utopia; Bruce McKinnon, of Orillia; Murray Jones of Midland, and Norman Hamilton, of Bradford. Ron Jones, of Midland, remains on the Executive as Past President. Robert Cowan is Secretary-Manager.
