

50 years of marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Edwards, residents of Medonte Township celebrated their golden anniversary last weekend. The couple, married Nov. 5, 1930, were joined by family and friends for a dinner celebration at the United Church in Vasey.

'golden occasion'

It was a very happy occasion as Blanche and Albert Morin of Penetanguishene celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary, Friday evening. The couple was joined by their family and friends from as far away as Montreal, Quebec. The festivities were

Port, Harbour figures reversed

Comparison of advance poll turnouts in Port McNicoll, Victoria Harbour and Tay Township proves only that nothing can be proved from statistics.

While 18 voters cast their ballots Saturday in Port McNicoll, twice as many as did in the 1978 advance poll, only 33 took advantage of the advance poll in Victoria Harbour Saturday.

compared to 68 in 1978.

In 1978 the council in Tav Township was acclaimed. The 43 voters who took advantage of the advance poll that year were voting for separate school representatives only.

Last Saturday 84 Tav residents cast their ballots for members of council and the two school boards.

Tav Township has 7,391 eligible voters. Of those, 6,524 vote for a public school representative and 867 vote for a separate school representative.

Eight separate school voters cast their ballots in Tav Saturday.

Port McNicoll has 1,721 eligible voters. Victoria Harbour has 1,200 eligible voters.
