

A real joint effort

Town of Penetanguishene made a real joint effort last Friday when representatives of the town, local business and the fire department presented cheques to the Midland Jaycees "Save a Life" campaign. The Penetanguishene organizations donated the money to assist the Jaycees in reaching their $15,000 goal.

Sharing for a common cause

Pulling this cheque out of a hat isn't magic, but it may help work some magic. Charlie Hounsome, left, representing the Midland Jaycees, received the donation from the Penetanguishene Fire Department on Friday. The money will assist the Jaycees in their efforts to obtain $15,000 for the purchase of extrication equipment for the Midland Fire Department. Representing the Penetanguishene Fire Department are firefighter, Lary Merkley, centre, and Deputy Fire Chief Laval Dubeau.

PGH Births

It was a busy week at Penetanguishene General Hospital, with a number of new arrivals being delivered to happy parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hamelin, of 70 Poyntz St., Penetanguishene were the recipients of a 5 lb., 11 oz. baby girl, Oct. 30, 1980.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ladouceur of 23 Northland Drive, Midland also celebrated the arrival of a baby girl. The infant was born Oct. 31, and tipped the scale at 6 lbs., 8 ozs.

A 7 lb. 4 oz. boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dupuis of 64 Fox St., Penetanguishene. The baby arrived Nov. 2.
