

Loose puck ... but not for long

Steve Dunn of Midland Centennials hockey club was quick to move when he saw a loose puck around the Penetanguishene Kings' net in Friday night's game. Centennials took home-ice advantage in the action-packed cliff-hanger which saw the Kings lose 9-8 after fighting back to tie the score at 8-8 from a 6-1 deficit half way through the second period. Midland scored the winning goal with 16 seconds left to play.

Dock Lunch dominates scoring race

Dock Lunch of Penetanguishene Recreational Hockey League has good reason for being in first place in their league.

Seven of the top ten scorers in the league are on their team.

In fact, the top six scorers are on Dock Lunch.

They are: Ken Edgar, Dock Lunch - 14 pts. Bill

McIntosh, Dock Lunch - 11 pts. Paul Loughran, Dock Lunch - 10 pts. Rick Desjardins, Dock Lunch - 9 pts. Larry Cowan, Dock Lunch - 9 pts. Tom Gignac, Dock Lunch - 7 pts.

Larry Langley, also of Dock Lunch, is in eighth place in league standings.

A 'fishy' story?

Fred Howse of Penetanguishene indicates the measure of this Chinook Salmon found by him and his eldest son, in a creek entering Penetanguishene Bay over the weekend. The 39 inch salmon was dead when found and the Howse's who were looking for ducks at the time decided to bring the fish to the Ministry of Natural Resources office in Maple, to see if MNR might be able to answer questions about the fish's origin and destination.

Orser performs well at Skate Canada

Penetanguishene's Brian Orser finished sixth overall in this weekend's Skate Canada competition in Calgary.

Orser, who skates out of Midland figure skating club was in seventh position after the compulsory short program.

Skaters from 13 countries participated in the event televised on CTV.

Skate Canada was the first international meet of the new season and was the first time Orser had come up against competition of this calibre this season.

During this long program, Orser did a triple axle with several triple lets.

The triple axle is a very rare movement and is very difficult to do properly but Orser pulled it off with an impressive amount of dexterity.

He ended his program with several strong split jumps to round off an excellent performance.

Orser finished first in Gervais, France in an international men's competition this past summer and is the youngest competitor in that level of competition at 18 years old.

You could bowl your way to Florida

A trip to Florida could become more than a dream to someone from Midland or Penetanguishene who belong to Midland-Penetanguishene's Five Pin Bowlers' Association.

Starting this week, the high-low doubles tournament gets under way for that league and the winners will go on to the Provincial finals with the chance of winning the trip to Florida.

Not much change

Midland and Penetanguishene's men's bowling teams have begun their 1980-81 season right where they left off last year.

In a tournament in Bracebridge Saturday, Midland Bayshore Lanes men's team finished in the competition with a second after bowling a 6,657 score for five games.

Penetanguishene's Commodore Hotel team came in third with a score of 6,600.

A team from Bracebridge won the tournament with a score of 6,930 for their five games.

Midland six out of first pins behind the first place team from Orillia.

Bad news for MSS girls

On the weekend of Nov. 1, Midland Secondary School's junior girls' basketball team played in a junior girls' basketball tournament at Stayner Collegiate Institute.

MSS' squad won easily over the host club from Stayner, defeating them by a score of 33-18.

Carolyn Meech was top scorer for Midland with 10 points while Kim Carpenter had seven.

Yet, as they say, there's good news and bad news.

In that game, Kelly Edwards, the team's starting center sprained her ankle quite badly and will be out of the lineup for at least two weeks.

A close game was played between MSS and Grey Highlands in the semi-finals but MSS came out on the short end of the score as they went down 25-18.

Kim Carpenter and Carolyn Meech were top scorers again with seven points each.

Today, MSS' juniors will be playing their last league game in Midland Secondary School's triple gym against Park St.

MSS' junior girls are presently in second place in their division.
