The Community was saddened by the death of Mr. Jack Dunlop of Coldwater on Wednesday, Nov. 5 at Orillia Soldiers Memorial Hospital.

He was born in Moonstone where he lived until his marriage to Miss Ella Graham of Eady. He then moved to the former Bud Ryan farm on the Coldwater Road just south of Coldwater.

After some years he moved to Coldwater. He sold his farm to the Stewart Alderson family, whose son Harvey now lives there.

Jack remained in the Coldwater home after the death of his wife, spending the later winters with some of his family, until he was taken to the hospital about six weeks ago.

He has three daughters Jane, Mrs. Ralph Lipsett of Toronto, Dorothy, Mrs. Romaine Croskill of Mount Forest, and Grace. Mrs. Bob Tipping of Orangeville.

He also leaves seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

He was interested in sports, playing with the Edmonton hockey team while he was in the West in his young days. He also enjoyed football and baseball.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in Coldwater and was on the board of Elders. Mrs. Bruce Speerin, Emma, is the sole survivor of this large family.

The extension to the Jim Eakley house is coming along well.

The hunters are returning from their annual hunt with varied results. The definite results are not yet announced. However we do know that Lloyd Dunlop shot two partridge in the backyard on Saturday morning.

Mrs. Lynn Lockhart is still in Barrie Royal Victoria Hospital but her condition is improving.

Thursday, Nov. 13 the Simcoe County Health Unit will be visiting our school to administer the Annual Brush-In.

From Nov. 17 to Nov. 28 will be the first term examinations. Report cards will be sent home on Dec. 5th. Non-Instructional Days for November will be:

Tuesday, Nov. 11 (Remembrance Day) and Thursday and Friday, Nov. 20 and 21.

These two days are designated as Professional Development Days by the Simcoe County Board of Education. Teachers will be involved in workshops throughout the County.

The winners of the "Super Citrus Fruit Salespeople" were

First Prize $50 to Steven Gray; Second Prize $25 to Cathy McFarland; Third Prize - pocket radio to Kevin Orr. Robbie King, Michelle Blunt, Terry Tomlin and Jeff Blunt.

Time is marching and we are becoming accustomed to Standard Time. The days are much shorter.

Our president Ignatius O'Halloran opened the meeting with the singing of O Canada.

There were about 80 members present to play the games of their choice. Winners were as follows: Bridge - Ena Adams and Bertille Marlev; Euchre - Zaida Drinkill and Art Settle, and Cribbage ended in a tie.

We had a sing-along with Emily Finlay, a very able leader.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 11 as there is voting on Monday in the Community Hall.

Our Christmas dinner was discussed and will be held December 15 with Isobel Doan and Tessie Beardsall giving the tickets Dec. 1 and 8.
