

Obituary

The death occurred Nov. 14, 1980, of Joseph Dusome, formerly of 69 Harriet St., Penetanguishene, at Penetanguishene General Hospital following a lengthy illness.

He was in his 70th year.

Mr. Dusome was born and lived all his life in Penetanguishene. His parents, John Dusome and Mary Trudeau, his wife, Helen Cascagnette and one brother, John Dusome, all predeceased him.

He is survived by seven sons: Maurice, of Thunder Bay Beach, Bernard, Gordon and Donald, all of Penetanguishene, Robert of Lafontaine, Michael of Grandvie Beach and Richard of Moonstone.

Mr. Dusome is also survived by four daughters: Anita Wilkinson of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Jeanne Quesnelle of Penetanguishene, and Shirley Cadieux and Lorraine Dempsey, both of Midland.

In addition, there are two surviving brothers, Andrew Dusome of Penetanguishene, and Raymond Dusome of Midland as well as two surviving sisters, Angeline Cascagnette of Penetanguishene and Edna Adams of Midland.

Nineteen grandchildren survive the late Mr. Dusome.

Funeral services were held Nov. 17, 1980, at St. Ann's Memorial Church, Penetanguishene.

Funeral included: Bob Wilkinson, Maurice Dusome, Robert Dusome, Gordon Dusome, Michael Dusome and Richard Dusome.

Funeral included: Bob Wilkinson, Maurice Dusome, Robert Dusome, Gordon Dusome, Michael Dusome and Richard Dusome.

Wyebridge news

by Liz and John Dennis

The African terrain and culture were highlighted last Monday, Nov. 10, as the Wyebridge Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting.

Keith and Ina Woods presented a slide show, explaining Ina's trip to Africa, last December. Ina went to Africa to visit their daughter, Cheryl who has spent the last two years there teaching.

Cheryl plans to return home to Mom and Dad,

December 12, marking the first time home in two years.

Upon completion of the slide show, regular business was resumed after which the twenty plus members enjoyed a delicious lunch.

The First Wyebridge Cubs and Beavers held their regular meeting last Thursday evening at 7 p.m.

Good attendance so far this year has made both the Cubs and Beavers strong organizations and all leaders concerned are working very hard to develop programs and courses for the boys.

The Cubs meet every Thursday at 7 p.m. under the leadership of Doug Reynolds and the Beavers meet the same night and time under the leadership of Bonnie Reynolds and Ken Reynolds.

At this time we would like to take a moment and wish Elizabeth Smith a speedy recovery. Elizabeth took sick last week and is now under the care of the Huronia District Hospital.

In an upcoming wedding anniversary, Larry and Bonny Reynolds will celebrate five years of marital bliss on Friday, Nov. 21. Congratulations!

Belated wishes for a happy anniversary go out to Ken and Mary Reynolds, who celebrated their special occasion, Thursday, Nov. 6.

Congratulations to the Wyebridge A.C.W. who reaped the rewards of all their hard work in connection with the Roast Beef Supper held last week.

The candle-light supper netted $1,578.76 after expenses based on 410 tickets sold.

One of Wyebridge's more prominent citizens, Walter Carpenter was the proud recipient of a ceramic rooster. The result of a ticket raffle held at Wyebridge's, "Wye Not Stop Shop?". Walter jokingly offered, "I'll have to find a ceramic hen to go with it!"

Don't forget Blightly Bingo every Tuesday evening at the Wyebridge Community Centre, starting at 8

Birthday means special treatment

Children who will be attending a performance of The Tin Soldier next month, and who on the same day are celebrating a birthday, are eligible for a surprise.
