

Wyebridge news

by Liz and John Dennis
Winter reared its head last Friday reminding us that just around the corner it would be taking up residence for a few long cold months.

A quick inventory of my wood supply suggested that I add a few logs to the pile or else one of two things would occur.

Our Franklin would be dormant in early February or the last of our sun deck would have puffed and sparked its way up our chimney by late April.

No matter how you measure it winter is slowly taking hold, and with it comes coughs, and colds.

One way to chase away the coughs and colds is to keep yourself fit and eat sensible good foods. This winter Wyebridge will be able to take advantage of a new ally. Grass Roots is opening Sunday, Dec. 7 and with it comes a complete line of natural foods.

Mike and Patricia

Heinz are the proud owners of this unique store situated immediately south of the Wye River bridge. Grass Roots will specialize in Natural Food, presenting one of the most complete lines of natural and health foods in Ontario.

Also featured will be a wide range of yarns, cottons and looms of various sizes. They also will be offering a wide variety of woven products from their weaving shop.

The store hours will be: Tuesday - Friday, 12 noon to 6 p.m. Saturday 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. and Sunday 1 p.m. - 6 p.m.

Grass Roots will be closed on Mondays. We all wish Mike and Patricia the best of luck in their new venture.

Constable Murray Cooper took time out from his busy schedule to be with the First Wyebridge Cubs and Beavers last Thursday. The boys enjoyed a film and Constable Cooper's talk was on winter safety. Afterwards the Beavers and Cubs played a few games.

A combined effort between the Township and local residents has given us a new bridge across the Wye River. This new bridge caters to hikers, skiers and snowmobilers and was built last week replacing the old one which had given way to father time.

The monthly meeting of the Wyebridge Community Centre Board of Directors was held last Wednesday evening. A large turnout was on hand to witness and take part in the many orders of business discussed.

Township representative Bernie Leclair discussed the constitution and also spoke on the various by laws governing the operation of the community centre.

One of the major improvements to the Community Centre is the recent installation of two new gas furnaces. They were a much needed component in the centre.

Bingo is alive and doing quite well. All the equipment is paid for and now that the ledger is in the black the organizers can breathe a little easier.

Last week's turnout was fifty-six competitors and Stu Withers did a fine job of calling. Blighty Bingo is every Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the Wyebridge Community Centre.

Crossland news

by Adelaide Lougheed
County Scholarship winners were announced at the regular monthly meeting of the Crossland Women's Institute, at the home of Mrs. Betty Klein Gebbinck.

The North Simcoe award was won by Edina VanderWielen of R.R. 2 Minesing who is at present in the Family and Consumers' studies at Guelph University.

The Dorcas Grier Scholarship went to Glenda Bertram who is attending Humber College and plans on a career working with children. Congratulations girls!

Twelve members answered the roll call by naming an officer of the Ontario or Canadian Organization.

Correspondence included a letter from the Penetang General Hospital recognizing receipt of our Institute's donation of one hundred dollars and a reminder of gifts needed by the Mental Health Clinic, which was left to individual members to take care of.

The hall committee reported on future plans for the card parties, which will continue each Tuesday evening. Committee will enquire about buying new card tables. Mrs. Colleen Regier as secretary for hall committee, read out the names of members in charge of parties for the rest of the season.

Mrs. Gerry Klein Gebbinck gave the report of committee planning the Community Supper - which will be Pot Luck - with the W.I. providing turkey for those who come to the supper to celebrate our 70th birthday.

Mrs. Edith Doan displayed mugs bearing an original drawing of Crossland and the years 1910 - 1980. These will be sold for $1.25 as a memento of our 70th anniversary.

Our guest speaker, Mrs. May Brown of Washago, was introduced by Adelaide Lougheed, who said that Mav is Public Relations Officer for Simcoe Area and for Federated Institutes of Ontario.

Her topic was the world organization for rural women - known as ACWW which met in Hamburg Germany in June. Mrs. Brown was presented with a gift from the Branch and an anniversary cup from the hostess for the program.

A social time was spent with our visitors, over a delightful lunch served by Betty and her helpers.
